Advances In Cancer Survivorship Practice:

A Conference For Health Care Professionals • October 31–November 1, 2013

Goal

The vision of The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is to enhance the excellence, value, safety and efficiency of our patient care. The goal of this conference is to provide health care professionals with firm knowledge and skills in management of post-treatment cancer care and long-term follow up, as well as education about managing psychosocial needs, cancer risk factors, risk-reduction strategies, screening guidelines and training to screen, diagnose and provide relevant follow-up care.

In this way, we will contribute to a growing network of experts who can shape the cancer survivorship service delivery model in a unique and meaningful way.

Educational Objectives

- Identify the primary categories of care needs for cancer survivors: late effects monitoring, psychosocial functioning assessment and communication (Knowledge);
- Incorporate disease-specific cancer survivorship management of common malignancies into practice (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes);
- Integrate clinical cancer survivorship practice guidelines into practice (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes); and
- Implement skills and techniques to address the unique needs and the spectrum of problems faced by cancer survivors (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes).

Target Audience

This conference should be of interest to Physicians (Oncology, Family Medicine, Internal Medicine), Physician Assistants, Nurses, Dietitians and Social Workers.

Educational Methods

Lectures – Questions and Answers – Case Studies – Poster Session and Poster Presentations – Integrative Small Groups and Discussion Groups – Audience Response System

Evaluation

A course evaluation form will provide participants with the opportunity to comment on the value of the program content to their practice decisions, performance improvement activities, or possible impact on patient health status. Participants will also have the opportunity to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations as well as to identify future educational topics.

Accreditation/Credit Designation

• Physicians

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 13.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Ethics

This course has been designated by The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center for 13.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.

• Nursing

Nursing Continuing Education Contact Hours will be awarded.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Texas Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

• Social Work

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, Department of Social Work, is an approved provider of Continuing Education Units (CEUs) by the Texas Board of Social Work Examiners.

Social Work CEUs will be awarded upon verification of attendance for each presentation.

CME Certificates and Attendance Verification Certificates

Certificates awarding AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] or certificates documenting attendance will be distributed to participants when an individual departs the conference. To obtain a CME certificate, physicians must submit a completed evaluation questionnaire and a CME Verification Form.

Upon request, a record of attendance (certificate) will be provided on-site to other health care professionals for requesting credits in accordance with state nursing boards, specialty societies, or other professional associations.

Call for Abstracts

Deadline for abstract submissions is Friday, August 30, 2013.

Abstracts for the Poster Session may be submitted to CancerSurvivorship@mdanderson.org.

The goal of this state-of-the-science conference is to provide health care professionals with a firm knowledge base and improved skills in the management of post-treatment cancer care and long-term follow up. The educational focus will be on the management of psychosocial needs, cancer risk factors, risk-reduction strategies, and screening guidelines. Participants will train in screening, diagnosis, and the provision of relevant follow-up care.

Physicians, fellows, trainees, nurses and other health care professionals are encouraged to submit abstracts for poster presentations for the biennial survivorship conference for health care professionals.

Abstracts will be accepted for the following categories:

1. Original survivorship research abstracts
2. Survivorship research abstracts presented at other conferences
3. Abstracts of survivorship research completed, in progress, or in planning

Abstract Instructions

Abstracts will be screened for relevance to cancer survivorship research, defined as research which explores and evaluates the physical, psychosocial, and economic sequelae of cancer diagnosis and its treatment, or tests interventions to ameliorate these sequelae. It also includes issues in health care delivery, access, and follow up care as they relate to survivors.

Structure abstracts using the following mandatory format:

- Background, Methods, Results, and Conclusion.
If not applicable to your abstract, make a note of it in the appropriate section of the abstract.
- The entire abstract (title and body) must not exceed 2,000 characters (not including spaces), which is approximately 300-350 words.
- Abbreviations may be used if they are spelled out or defined at the first mention.
- One table, graph, or illustration may be included in the abstract.

Submission Instructions

Authors must indicate their role and select the category (in alphabetical order below) that best applies to the area of their cancer survivorship research. Authors must also indicate what stage their research has reached (completed, in progress, or in planning).

Role: ☐ Physician ☐ Faculty ☐ Nurse ☐ Social Worker ☐ Trainee ☐ Fellow

Category:

| ☐ Long Term/Late Effects | ☐ Survivorship Care/ Care Plans |
| ☐ Pediatric Survivors | ☐ Other (one word/brief description): |
| ☐ Prevention, Screening & Risk Reduction | |

Content: ☐ Quality Improvement ☐ Program ☐ Research

All abstracts must be submitted via email to:

CancerSurvivorship@mdanderson.org – no later than Friday, August 30, 2013.

- The first author of the abstract will receive an email confirming that the abstract was received.
- Abstracts that are not submitted in the format above will not be accepted.
- Notification regarding the Program Committee's decision will be sent out in late September 2013.
