Sept. 24–28, 2013:
Malignant Hematology and Medical Oncology

Goal

The course is a 6-day comprehensive review of current standards and practices in the management of patients with blood disorders and malignancy. The course is designed with breadth and depth sufficient to enable the participant to effectively prepare for the American Board of Internal Medicine certification and recertification examinations in Hematology and Medical Oncology. Advances in clinical pharmacology, molecular genetics and risk assessment, and radiation oncology will be included.

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to

- Apply knowledge gained to prepare for the hematology and medical oncology subspecialty and recertification examinations in hematology and medical oncology (Knowledge, Competence);
- Utilize current standards of care for patients with cancer, blood disorders and malignancies (Knowledge, Competence, Performance);
- Demonstrate proficiency of knowledge in hematology and medical oncology (Knowledge, Competence, Performance);
- Incorporate recent advances in management of hematologic and oncologic patients (Knowledge, Competence, Performance); and
- Define molecular determinants of cancer risk and apply this knowledge in practice (Knowledge, Competence, Performance)

Target Audience

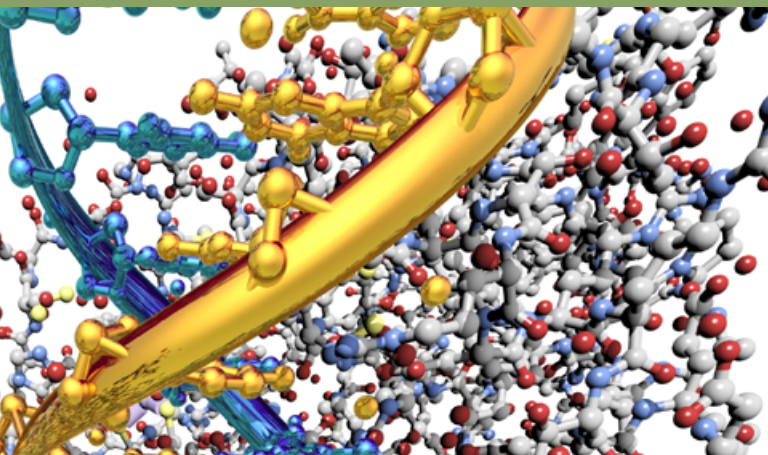

This program should be of interest to physicians, medical hematologists and oncologists, APNs, physician assistants and nurses.

Educational Methods

- Lectures
- Case-based Question-and-Answer Sessions (in board examination format)
- Syllabi (hard copy and CD-ROM)
- A/V DVD recording of conference proceeding.
The A/V DVD recording of conference proceedings will be mailed to all registered conference participants approximately 2 weeks after the conference.

Evaluation

A course evaluation form will provide participants with the opportunity to review each session and speaker, to identify future educational needs, and to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations.

Accreditation/Credit Designation

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 47.50 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME Certificates and Attendance Verification Certificates

Certificates awarding AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ or certificates documenting attendance will be distributed to participants when an individual departs the conference. To obtain a CME certificate, physicians must submit a completed evaluation questionnaire and a CME Verification Form.

Upon request, a record of attendance (certificate) will be provided on-site to other health care professionals for requesting credits in accordance with state nursing boards, specialty societies, or other professional associations.

Registration Fee Schedule

See registration form for fee schedule.

Physician Assistants/Nurses/Advanced Practice Nurses

A reduced registration fee has been established for physician assistants, nurses and advanced practice nurses. All claiming this reduced fee are required to submit a letter of introduction from the chairperson of their department with their registration form.

Refund/Cancellation Policy

The registration fee, minus a $50 administrative handling fee, is refundable if a written request is received on or before Monday, September 9, 2013. No refunds will be granted after that date. The request for a registration refund must include the tax identification number of the company or institution if registration was paid by a company or institution check. For additional information, contact CME/Conference Management at 713-792-2223 or toll free at 866-849-5866.

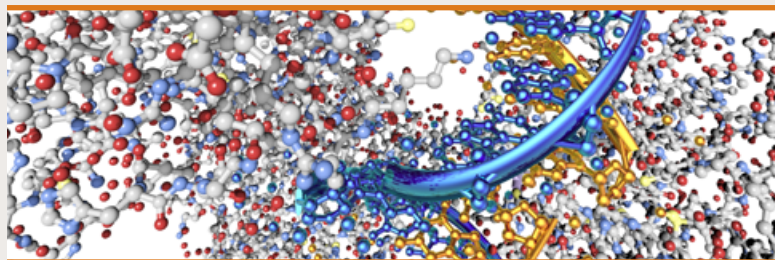

The Department of CME/Conference Management reserves the right to cancel activities prior to the scheduled date, if low enrollment or other circumstances make it necessary. Each registrant will be notified by mail, e-mail, or at the phone or fax numbers given on the registration form.

In case of activity cancellation, the liability of the Department of CME/Conference Management is limited to the registration fee. CME/Conference Management will refund the full registration fee.

The Department of CME/Conference Management reserves the right to limit the number of participants in a program and is not responsible for any expenses incurred by an individual whose registration is not confirmed and for whom space is not available. Please check the website.

Special Assistance

Contact Felisha Estelle in the Department of CME/Conference Management at 713-745-0083 or 1-866-531-MOBR (6627) if you have any special dietary or ADA accommodation needs.

A Reminder:

Meeting room temperatures and personal comfort ranges vary widely. Since meeting rooms always seem cold, please bring either a sweater or jacket.

Please let us know what specific topics, issues, or questions you wish to see addressed or emphasized in this activity. Fax or e-mail CME/Conference Management. All responses will be forwarded to the Program Chairs for consideration.

Entertainment

Note: The conference will not be providing transportation for any of the events listed below. Transportation is available with MetroRail for some of the events. For more information visit www.ridemetro.org.

THEATER DISTRICT

Houston's downtown Theater District is second only to New York for the number of theater seats in a concentrated downtown area. It is also one of only five cities in the United States with permanent professional resident companies in all of the major performing arts disciplines of opera, ballet, music and theater. The following will be playing at the time of the meeting:

- Houston Symphony, Jones Hall
Beethoven 7 Plus Rachmaninoff - September 26 and 28, 2013
Relish a great masterpiece of music that Beethoven himself called "one of the happiest products of my poor talents." The Seventh Symphony's Allegretto movement became famous from the very start, when the public demanded an encore at its first performance. Also on the program is Rachmaninoff's The Bells, inspired by an Edgar Allen Poe poem.
Visit www.houstonsymphony.org or call 713-224-7575
- Houston Ballet
The Merry Widow - September 22, 27 and 28, 2013
Houston Ballet revives Ronald Hynd's deliciously comic love story, The Merry Widow, featuring spectacular scenery and costumes by Italian designer Roberta Guidi di Bagno.
Visit www.houstonballet.org or call 713-227-2787 or 1-800-828-2787
- Alley Theatre
You Can't Take It with You - September 20, 2013 - October 20, 2013
Alice Sycamore must introduce her fiancé's straight-laced family to her rather more eccentric family. When the wildly different families meet, the worlds of the wealthy, uptight Kirbys and the off-kilter Sycamores collide. At first the Sycamores seem mad, but it is not long before we realize that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder.
Visit www.alleytheatre.org or call 713-220-5700

MUSEUM DISTRICT

The Houston Museum District is home to sixteen institutions, offering a range of museums, galleries, and art and cultural centers.

- The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston is the largest art museum in America south of Chicago, west of Washington, D.C., and east of Los Angeles. Included in its extensive permanent collection are pieces by Renoir, Monet, Picasso, Georgia O'Keeffe, Matisse and Rodin.
- The Houston Museum of Natural Science is a five-venue complex dedicated to the knowledge of natural science. It is home to the Cockrell Butterfly Center, Burke Baker Planetarium and the Wortham IMAX® Theatre.
- The Holocaust Museum Houston - Charged with educating students and the public about the dangers of prejudice and hatred in society, The Holocaust Museum Houston is dedicated to remembering the 6 million Jews and other innocent victims of the Holocaust and honoring the legacy of the survivors. Using the lessons of the Holocaust and other genocides, they teach the dangers of hatred, prejudice and apathy.

Attractions

Sam Houston Race Park – Live thoroughbred racing will keep you on the edge of your seat at Sam Houston Race Park. Exciting live horse racing, eight bars, two restaurants and the best music under the stars. Find out why Sam Houston Race Park is the place to be for live entertainment! Racing is at 7:00 pm Thursday/Friday and at 5:00 pm on Saturday. For more details visit www.shrp.com or call 281-807-8700.

Kemah Boardwalk – A waterfront getaway just 20 miles from downtown Houston. In addition to the many restaurants, a major attraction is the 50,000- gallon aquarium that gives Aquarium Restaurant its name. Guests to the boardwalk also enjoy shopping, games and rides. For more information, check out www.kemahboardwalk.com.

Galveston Island – South of Houston is Galveston, an island rich in history. The Strand Historic District is a twenty-six square block area of shopping, dining and art galleries. Within the Strand District, one will find Moody Mansion, Ashton Villa and the Bishop's Palace—opulent, historic Victorian homes of the late 1800's.

Also found on Galveston Island, Moody Gardens is an experience like no other. The Rainforest Pyramid is lush with exotic plants, birds and fish, while the Aquarium Pyramid will submerge visitors into the beauty of ocean life. Visit www.galveston.com to learn more about what the island has to offer.

Space Center Houston – is the official visitor's center of NASA's Johnson Space Center. Learn about the history and future of space exploration through the center's interactive exhibits. Learn more at www.spacecenter.org.

Shopping Guide Everything is bigger in Texas and shopping in Houston is no different. From chic boutiques to quaint gift shops, upscale department stores to bargain outlets; chances are you will find it here.

Rice Village – One of the oldest shopping areas in town, Village Arcade in Rice Village is a great mix of classic stores and unique boutiques. Located near Rice University and the Texas Medical Center, the Village offers shoppers an eclectic experience. Get a sneak peek at ricevillageonline.com

The Galleria – is the number one shopping destination in Houston with more than 375 stores and restaurants, two hotels and an ice rink. Fashion icons such as Louis Vuitton, Gucci and Tiffany & Co. are showcased here next to everyday favorites like Gap and Macy's. Need a break? Take a seat and watch the ice skaters twirl. Visit simon.com/mail to learn more about what you'll find (or won't find) in the Galleria.

Harwin Drive – Looking for basement bargains? Head over to Harwin Drive in West Houston. Warehouse stores sell leather goods (some real and some faux), jewelry, clothing and other accessories. The area is similar to New York's Orchard Street with must-have items at unbeatable prices.

Dining Guide Houstonians eat out more than residents of any other city and it's no wonder why. Houston is home to more than 11,000 restaurants and some of the best can be found in the downtown scene.

Sambuca Restaurant is a modern-day supper club serving up amazing entrees paired with great music. Crave Italian with a twist? Try Mia Bella's Mozzarella Fritti with roasted jalapeño pesto.

If you are looking for more than good food, visit the Downtown Aquarium—it's an underwater adventure. Vic & Anthony's Steakhouse is a world-class establishment serving USDA Prime steaks and over 1,000 of the best wines from around the world. Other restaurants include Wasabi, Bossa, Zula, St. Pete's Dancing Marlin and 43rd.
