

Women's Leadership Forum

WOMEN IN MEDICINE: COMPETITION, COLLABORATION, AND TEAM LEADERSHIP

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2013, 6:30 TO 8:00 PM

Sponsored by the Massachusetts Medical Society and its Committee on Women in Medicine

Program Overview

DESCRIPTION

Through lectures and interactive discussion, this activity will provide opportunities for you to increase your effectiveness as team members and leaders. You will hear from experts on a variety of topics including solutions to further develop the careers of women physicians. Attendees will learn to apply their own strategic decision-making skills, leadership competencies, and personal effectiveness in the management of teams, departments, and organizations as they work with others to build commitment to goals and implement changes. This program will also feature a networking dinner and presentation of the Woman Physician Leadership Award to Dr. Marianne E. Felice.

OBJECTIVES

As a result of participating in this activity, attendees should be able to:

- > Increase their effectiveness as team members and leaders and gain insight into how women can achieve greater inroads into leadership positions
- > Think strategically to implement change and offer solutions to further develop the careers of women physicians
- > Describe the unique opportunities and challenges for women physician leaders and identify basic methods needed to break into leadership positions
