August 7-9, 2025
Ruidoso Convention Center, Ruidoso, New Mexico

While visiting Ruidoso, enjoy local artists and talents at the performing arts and dinner theaters or stroll along Midtown (located on Suddearth Drive) and visit over 100 shops, restaurants and galleries. Ruidoso also offers an immense array of outdoor activities such as golfing, mountain biking, hiking, fishing, prospecting, gold panning, backcountry treks, and horseback riding. Ruidoso is an outdoor enthusiast's delight.
Ruidoso is also near White Sands National Monument, Carlsbad Caverns, Valley of Fires, Gran Quiviera, Wildlife Refuges, and Ghost Towns.
Southern New Mexico is packed with historical and archeological sites. Native Americans mapped this landscape for subsistence, trade and community welfare; pioneers settled and mined, farmed and ranched. There are military forts and battlefields, railroads, missile ranges, and cultures that clashed and joined together; all these contribute to our rich Southwestern heritage.
