

The Palms Casino Resort Internationally recognized for its exceptional accommodations, high-energy nightlife, extravagant pools and world-renowned restaurants, Palms Casino Resort captures all the excitement and energy of Las Vegas in one vibrant setting. Situated on nearly 30 acres, Palms is a boutique property with three distinct towers, each offering unparalleled views of the iconic Las Vegas Strip. Having recently undergone a multi-million dollar transformation, the Palms has redesigned guest rooms, new culinary experiences, re-imagined gaming areas, and created even more distinctive nightlife and daytime experiences.

Each of The Palm's award-winning restaurants is home to a world-class chef whose cuisine not only excites the senses but the culinary world as a whole. With a variety of atmospheres ranging from sports-driven entertainment to relaxed, poolside dining, the settings are as diverse as the menus. The Eatery is a collection of popular, fast-casual restaurants located at the west end of the casino. No matter what or when you're craving, you can always grab a quick bite and then get back to the good times. The Palms shines brightest once the sun goes down. For those who want a sizzling dance floor with a view, nothing tops Ghostbar. If you're looking for a different vibe, The Palm's offering of lounges and bars are a comfortable, stylish way to make the most of the night.

Home to one of the only IMAX experiences in Las Vegas, Brenden Theatres is a 14-screen movieplex on the Palms casino floor. Each theater really ups the movie magic with tiered stadium seating, plush rocker high-back seats, digital sound and giant wall-to-wall curved screens. When it's time to relax, nourish your body at the lavishly modern Drift spa. With over 20 treatment rooms and an extensive list of services, Drift is truly a retreat for every body. The spa is also home to the first Hammam in Las Vegas. Inspired by tradition, this co-ed steam bath evolves what has been a Turkish custom for centuries. Recharge Salon & Fitness is a two-story sanctuary featuring a cardio center, beauty salon and pool. From group yoga, Pilates or spin class to a one-on-one personal training session, the fitness center is available to help keep you looking and feeling good while you're away from home.

COURSE DIRECTOR: Mark T. Murphy, MD, MSN Education, Austin, Texas, and Medical Director, Northwest Anesthesia Seminars, Pasco, Washington

TARGET AUDIENCE: This course is designed for physicians, certified registered nurse anesthetists, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, registered nurses and other medical care providers who must maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of the specialty or are impacted by it.

PROGRAM PURPOSE: The practitioner of anesthesiology must possess the scientific background for clinical practice; maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of not only the specialty, but also of all additional related disciplines which may impact it; maintain an up-to-the-minute armamentarium of knowledge and skills for the selection and use of complex equipment, pharmacological agents, and procedures necessary for the provision of quality patient care; manage self and colleagues to function toward common goals in the clinical setting, the clinical and educational institutions, and the community in which the practice resides; serve as an expert in matters involving health care delivery; serve as an informed manager of clinical and educational services provided, including the acquisition and distribution of resources necessary in meeting professional goals; and provide assistance with and support of other service providers, departments, institutions, and organizations dependent upon the professional expertise of the practitioner. Presentations are designed to facilitate the physician, nurse specialist, and other providers maintaining skills of the same kind to review and update knowledge and abilities in one or more of these areas vital to the practicing professional.

OBJECTIVES: At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

Apply the pertinent physical and behavioral sciences—to include but not be limited to advanced anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, chemistry, physics, psychology, and social sciences—as they impact and are affected by the planning, delivery, and monitoring of anesthesia and related services inherent in the anesthesiology professions.

Explain the selection, dosing considerations with methods of administration, safe use, and contraindications and precautions of presented pharmacological agents through the understanding of their physicochemical properties, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics, updated uses, and more recently developed additional, related, and similar drugs.

Outline comprehensive management plans for the group of patients discussed, whether related in age, physical status, cultural background, invasive procedure, anesthetic or analgesic requirements, clinical setting, adverse reactions, and/or goals of care.

Apply the principles of safety and asepsis in the performance of anesthetic procedures and administrations, equipment use, and other applications encountered during the provision of anesthesia and analgesia whether in the surgical unit, the labor and delivery suite, the pain management clinic, or other more remote location of anesthetizing services.

Incorporate the appropriate recommendations and/or requirements of pertinent external organizations, institutions, and professional groups—recognized as serving as the authority for and/or holding the responsibility to compile and approve such tenets—in the provision of anesthesia and related services, whether medical, legal, philosophical, ethical, or health care management standards.

Apply the new techniques in the clinical setting of the participant.
