
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Care of Wound Complications in Home Care

Carrie Adkins, RN, BSN, CWOCN

Course Objectives:

- Identify wound complications and ways to initiate care as soon as identified
- Recognize wound characteristics that are within normal limits and those that are not
- Document accurate wound descriptions with correct terminology for quality and to support medical necessity
- Communicate with physicians to administer appropriate and evidenced-based patient care