TRAUMA AND ACUTE CARE SURGERY CONFERENCE (NEW!)

THEME: 'Beating the odds with evidence-based practice'

Supported by

Dear Trauma expert,

Join in the exciting discussions at Arab Health's NEW Trauma and Acute Care Surgery conference with the theme 'Beating the odds with evidence-based practice'. As the conference chair, we welcome you to join us this Arab Health to explore how trauma experts can improve standards of care in practice today.

The conference will also focus on updates in humanitarian military interventions to ensure continuous development and implementation of good practice in the field of war and conflict surgery. Do not miss the critical care sessions and the special focused session on abdominal injuries where we delve deep into hot topics like de-resuscitation!

This conference offers 13.75 CME points and comprehensive continuing education in the treatment of critically ill and injured patients, stressing current basic and cutting edge guidelines and technology for evaluation, diagnosis and management. It will feature ways to improve pre-hospital trauma care, inter-hospital transfer and rehabilitation and present recent cases of trauma.

See you at Arab Health!

Kind Regards,

Prof Dr Yousif Hussein Eltayeb, Consultant Surgeon, Rashid Hospital, Associate Professor, Dubai Medical College, Dubai Surgical Residency Program Director, Dubai Healthcare Authority, Dubai, UAE
Trauma and Acute Care Surgery Conference Chair 2018

ACCREDITATION STATEMENT:

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education designates this live activity for a maximum of 13.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Participants claiming CME credit from this activity may submit the credit hours to the American Osteopathic Association for Category 2 credit.

KEY TOPICS:

- ▶ Surgery in conflict zones
- ▶ War surgery
- ▶ Trauma critical care
- ▶ Abdominal injuries
- ▶ Training and research in trauma

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- ▶ Trauma Surgeons
- ▶ Physicians/ Consultants/ Specialists:
 - trauma
 - burns
 - critical care units
- ▶ Military/ Army / Police doctors/ Physicians
- ▶ Emergency Medicine Specialists
- ▶ Paramedical / Ambulatory Care / Emergency Medical Technicians/ First Responders
- ▶ Chiefs of Paramedics/ Trauma/ Burns/ Critical Care Units

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING:

- Recognise current multidisciplinary trends in the care of the trauma patient, and apply them appropriately in individual practices
- Apply concepts from quality trauma care for blunt abdominal injury case studies to the practice setting to minimise damage to normal structures in the surgical area
- Assess trauma severity score for neurosurgery to reduce post-operative pain and lead to faster recovery time, and lower infection risk, while maintaining functionality of normal tissue
- Discuss appropriate surgical response to pelvic and bone injuries which can help maximise the effectiveness and durability of the surgical treatment
- Determine how to apply correct planning methods, preparedness, and medical management of trauma patients to develop skills for mass casualties in disasters
