General Information

Course Description

The purpose of this course is to help clinicians recognize the symptoms and best mode of treatment for common pediatric emergencies such as seizures, psychiatric emergencies, pediatric gynecological emergencies and the fainting child. In addition, clinicians will learn about what can best be treated in the office versus in the hospital setting.

Objectives

Following the education, the learner will be able to:

- Discuss a systematic approach to the evaluation of a syncopal child.
- Approach to the child presenting in danger to self or others.
- Discuss the emergent management of the seizing child.
- Discuss common environmental emergencies including, heat-related illness, hypothermia, drowning and common local envenomations.
- Discuss the emergence of the opioid epidemic and its impact on how we manage pain.
- Describe the systematic approach to the child that presents with a limp.
- Discuss the most common pediatric eye emergencies, from simple abrasions to penetrating injuries.
- Discuss common pediatric gynecological emergencies.

Continuing Education Credits

Physician Education

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta is accredited by the Medical Association of Georgia to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Children's designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nursing Education

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Alabama State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

11.0 Contact hours

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta resolves to assure that its educational mission, and particularly its continuing medical education program, is not influenced by the special interests of any corporation or individual. While having a financial interest or professional affiliation with a corporation does not necessarily influence a speaker's presentation, the standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education require that this relationship be disclosed to the audience. Any potential conflict of interest will be made known to participants at the beginning of the activity.

All programs are intended to be accessible to all persons. If you have a disability and require assistance to participate fully in conference activities, contact the conference coordinator, Ashley Izydore, to discuss your specific needs.

Visit choa.org/cme for more information about CME offerings at Children's.
