COURSE DIRECTOR: Mark T. Murphy, MD, MSN Education, Austin, Texas, and Medical Director, Northwest Anesthesia Seminars, Pasco, Washington

TARGET AUDIENCE: This course is designed for physicians, certified registered nurse anesthetists, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, registered nurses and other medical care providers who must maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of the specialty or are impacted by it.

PROGRAM PURPOSE: The practitioner of anesthesiology must possess the scientific background for clinical practice; maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of not only the specialty, but also of all additional related disciplines which may impact it; maintain an up-to-the-minute armamentarium of knowledge and skills for the selection and use of complex equipment, pharmacological agents, and procedures necessary for the provision of quality patient care; manage self and colleagues to function toward common goals in the clinical setting, the clinical and educational institutions, and the community in which the practice resides; serve as an expert in matters involving health care delivery; serve as an informed manager of clinical and educational services provided, including the acquisition and distribution of resources necessary in meeting professional goals; and provide assistance with and support of other service providers, departments, institutions, and organizations dependent upon the professional expertise of the practitioner. Presentations are designed to facilitate the physician, nurse specialist, and other providers maintaining skills of the same kind to review and update knowledge and abilities in one or more of these areas vital to the practicing professional.

OBJECTIVES: At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

Apply the pertinent physical and behavioral sciences—to include but not be limited to advanced anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, chemistry, physics, psychology, and social sciences—as they impact and are affected by the planning, delivery, and monitoring of anesthesia and related services inherent in the anesthesia professions.

Explain the selection, dosing considerations with methods of administration, safe use, and contraindications and precautions of presented pharmacological agents through the understanding of their physicochemical properties, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics, updated uses, and more recently developed additional, related, and similar drugs.

Outline comprehensive management plans for the group of patients discussed, whether related in age, physical status, cultural background, invasive procedure, anesthetic or analgesic requirements, clinical setting, adverse reactions, and/or goals of care.

Apply the principles of safety and asepsis in the performance of anesthetic procedures and administrations, equipment use, and other applications encountered during the provision of anesthesia and analgesia whether in the surgical unit, the labor and delivery suite, the pain management clinic, or other more remote location of anesthetizing services.

Incorporate the appropriate recommendations and/or requirements of pertinent external organizations, institutions, and professional groups—recognized as serving as the authority for and/or holding the responsibility to compile and approve such tenets—in the provision of anesthesia and related services, whether medical, legal, philosophical, ethical, or health care management standards.

Apply the new techniques in the clinical setting of the participant.

ACCREDITATION: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of The A. Atlanta In Atlanta, fine dining, shopping and rich history combine with inspiration-inducing attractions to create a city with Southern charm and world-class sophistication.

The young and young at heart will marvel at the many and varied species housed at Zoo Atlanta, including giant pandas, giraffes, sumatran tigers, orangutans, and zebras to name a few. Next, go beneath the waves with sharks and fish at the Atlanta Aquarium and catch a show of sea lions or dolphins performing dazzling tricks. More natural wonders can be found at the Atlanta Botanical Garden, which hosts a variety of plantlife exhibits, including orchids and roses, rare conifers, endangered tropical varieties, desert and high altitude species, native species, and more. For the creative among you, collections at Atlanta's High Museum of Art consist of more than 15,000 pieces of 19th and 20th century American art, significant European pieces, modern and contemporary art, photography, African, and folk art. History buffs will enjoy the Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site, the Center for Civil and Human Rights, Swan House, and the Atlanta History Center.

Head downtown to taste over 140 beverages from around the globe at the World of Coca-Cola while touring the history of this famous brand. Love to shop? Atlantic Station is a walkable, outdoor shopping mecca just north of downtown. Hikers and bikers can spend the day outdoors exploring 22 miles of the revitalized Atlanta BeltLine. Finally, refuel at one of over 300 restaurants spanning every cuisine and price point. There is truly something for everyone in Atlanta!

We have a block of rooms for seminar participants. Once this block is sold, rooms are based upon availability only and may be at a higher rate. To make reservations, please visit our website: www.nwas.com or call (800) 222-6927.
