

The American Society for Adolescent Psychiatry
Annual Meeting
“Past, Present, and Future of Adolescent Psychiatry”

March 18-20, 2016

Saul Farber Auditorium, Bellevue Hospital Center
462 First Avenue, MW3, New York, New York 10016*

GOALS:

To inform attendees through a comprehensive review course on the diagnosis and treatment in Adolescent Psychiatry and afford them opportunities to refresh skills in the fundamentals of the discipline, engage in discussion with peers on the standards governing the profession, and update their present knowledge.

CME TARGET AUDIENCE:

Psychiatrists and other physicians working at the interface of Adolescent Psychiatry.

OBJECTIVES:

Participants will improve their competence or performance in Adolescent Psychiatry in the following three areas:

- 1) Service, including treatment of adolescent patients as individuals, in the context of their family system, and in society at large, development of service delivery strategies, and enhancement of consultative abilities at the interface of adolescent psychiatry and adolescent medicine, the scholastic systems, and the juvenile legal system.
- 2) Teaching, including new methods of training of adolescent psychiatrists and classification of the tasks and functions of adolescent psychiatrists.
- 3) Research, gaining access to scientific data in areas that form the basis for practice of the discipline.

Program Brochure to be released November 15.

The Program will feature presentations from:

John Walkup, M.D. will deliver the William Schonfeld Award Lecture:

“Anxiety Disorders in Adolescents: What the Future Holds”

Glenn Saxe, M.D.: “Trauma and Stressor Related Disorders”

Greg Bunt, M.D.: “Substance and Related Addictive Disorders”

Julie Lesser, M.D.: “Eating Disorders”

Take this opportunity to attend this comprehensive review course to review the current body of knowledge and skill enhancement in adolescent psychiatry.
