2 Day Conference for All Nurses - Learn locally with Ausmed

Need for Program

In regard to the nursing care you provide, the need to continually seek new information is a given no matter where you work. Nursing safety and quality are essential and both are directly linked to knowledge. This is a time when:

Presenters

Craig Maloney Craig Maloney has a master of mental health nursing and graduate qualifications in child and adolescent mental health, group work, alcohol and other drugs, Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT), and Acceptance Commitment Therapy (ACT). He has substantial teaching experience in the area of managing workplace aggression and adverse incidents, mental health nursing, root cause analysis, and risk management. Craig is a Credentialed Mental Health Nurse, a fellow of the Australian College of Mental Health Nurses, and a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He is the recipient of two national awards for his work in primary health care and mental health and is a pioneer of males working in family and partner violence. Craig has experience working in research and occupational health and safety and is sought after as a risk governance and quality systems architect. He currently works as a consultant in systems design, quality and risk management, education, training, suicide intervention, and mental health first aid. He is a life coach, specialising in nursing success, and is the executive officer of a charity that supports injured workers on the journey to recovery.

Fran Pearce Fran Pearce is currently employed as an education coordinator at a large metropolitan teaching hospital. She has extensive experience in orthopaedic nursing, including orthopaedic case management and nurse unit management in both Australia and Northern Ireland. Fran regularly lectures on the topic of orthopaedics and is consistently highly evaluated by those who attend her sessions.

Barbara White Barbara White is a highly qualified diabetes educator who works as the Director of Specialised Diabetes Services, a private company that provides diabetes services in primary care and education services to health professionals. Barbara is enrolled in the Master of Nurse Practitioner at Deakin University and is a Member of the Australian College of Nurse Practitioners. Barbara has nine years of experience working with people living with diabetes. She has a diversity of nursing experience, which provides the experience and skill to deliver age-appropriate care across a broad range of Type I and Type II diabetes, including diabetes in pregnancy, paediatrics, and adolescents. Barbara is also a DAVic Trainer Team T1 and a DaVic Children's Camp diabetes educator.

Darren Riggon Darren Riggon is a casual academic in the School of Nursing and Midwifery at Deakin University. His clinical supervision interests include adult mental health, practice development, and career transitions.

Jude McKindley-Hodge Jude McKindley-Hodge has worked for many years in vocational rehabilitation in Ballarat, performing worksite assessments and providing advice on accommodation of workers with a disability within workplace environments. She has masters degrees in occupational therapy, ergonomics, safety, and health. Earlier in her career, she worked in community inpatient psychiatry and physical rehabilitation. She continues to provide services in OT private practice, with clients who suffer from a wide variety of disability and injuries.

Bobby Mehta Bobby Mehta is a highly experienced and award-winning senior pharmacist with over twenty years of professional practice and an extensive knowledge of international pharmacy. Having qualified and worked in the UK for the majority of his professional career, he became one of the world's first qualified prescribing pharmacists and has spent the last seven years employed within the Australian pharmacy sector, an experience which has mirrored the UK pharmacy transition from a prescription-led to a service -led model of pharmacy. Bobby's main focus has been on the design and implementation of professional services, developing functional integrative medicine models in community pharmacies and a strong passion for developing people through effective learning and development programs. The use of integrative medicine continues to grow, as does the corresponding evidence base, and Bobby is a firm believer that qualified, accurate and appropriate advice on their use has never been more relevant.
