About Conference

We are pleased to invite you to the 6th International Conference on Chemistry and Chemical Engineering (ICCCE 2027), scheduled as a hybrid event on June 10–11, 2027, in the beautiful city of Lisbon, Portugal, and Online.

ICCCE 2027 offers a premier international platform to explore recent advancements, foster interdisciplinary collaborations, and promote innovative research in the field of materials science and engineering.

The program includes:

- Keynote and invited lectures with engaging Q&A sessions
- Research poster presentations
- Flash talks from emerging researchers
- A multidisciplinary agenda spanning chemistry, reactions, and engineering applications

We warmly invite you to be part of ICCCE 2027, where cutting-edge research, collaboration, and innovation converge in one of Europe's most inspiring scientific hubs.

Lisbon, Portugal

Lisbon, the captivating capital of Portugal, is a city where centuries of history meet contemporary culture, innovation, and European sophistication. Located along the scenic Tagus River, the city is celebrated for its colorful streets, historic neighborhoods, elegant architecture, and vibrant cultural scene.

Visitors can explore iconic landmarks, traditional squares, museums, galleries, and the charming districts of Alfama, Baixa, and Belém. Lisbon is also known for its distinctive cuisine, lively atmosphere, and beautiful viewpoints overlooking the city and river.

With its excellent international connectivity, welcoming environment, and unique combination of heritage and modernity, Lisbon provides an ideal destination for international conferences, professional networking, and cultural experiences. Beyond the conference, participants can enjoy the city's rich traditions, coastal surroundings, and warm Portuguese hospitality.
