SAN DIEGO INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

on Child and Family Maltreatment

Science of Possibility, Waves of Change

January 29—February 3, 2017

Sheraton San Diego Hotel and Marina • San Diego, California

sandiegoconference.org

Come join us for the 31st Annual San Diego International Conference on Child and Family Maltreatment presented by the Chadwick Center for Children and Families at Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego.

This state-of-the-art, interactive program is specifically designed for those professionals working with families experiencing child maltreatment, trauma and violence. Internationally recognized faculty members will cover challenging topics in the following tracks:

- Core and Advanced Medical
- Mental Health and Trauma Counseling
- Forensic Interviewing
- Investigations
- Legal
- Infant and Early Childhood
- Child Welfare
- Prevention
- Substance Abuse
- Ethics
- Data Analytics/Technology
- Research
- Global Perspectives

Our focus is on innovation, best practices and technology. The Conference will offer interactive sessions that are case-based with expert panels. One highlight includes a new track on data analytics. We hope you can join us on the discussion on how predictive analytics might inform and assist the decision making in child protection.

Some other highlights include epigenetics, domestic violence, substance abuse, diversity, cyberbullying, trafficking, and ethical issues.

Over the week, we are hosting nine pre-conference institutes, four plenary sessions, your choice of over 140 sessions, and opportunities for networking and discussion among peers in our beautiful setting on the San Diego Bay.

We hope you leave the conference energized with a renewed passion and commitment to work with the families you serve.

Warm regards,

Charles A. Wilson, MSW

Senior Director and
Sam and Rose Stein Endowed Chair
in Child Protection

"Leading the way in preventing child and family maltreatment."

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The conference is directed to a multidisciplinary audience in the fields of child maltreatment, and family/community violence.

OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Conference is to develop and enhance our professional skills in prevention, recognition, assessment, and treatment of all forms of maltreatment.

WHY ATTEND

Learn. Hear from over 230 experts from around the globe providing the latest research, practical experience and skill-building workshops on best practices. Learn about issues concerning support for families, prevention, leadership, policy-making, and translating the latest research into action.

Connect. Nearly 2,000 professionals from the U.S. and 40 countries have the opportunity to come together in a collaborative environment: to learn from each other, focus on skills, knowledge, best practices, and interact to form personal and professional relationships.

See. The Exhibit Hall provides a great opportunity to explore a variety of professional and therapeutic books, clinical equipment, informational/program resources, therapeutic toys, and relaxation and fun products.

SUNDAY ■ JANUARY 29

Chadwick Center for Children and Families

BASIC SEXUAL ABUSE MEDICAL EVALUATION 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Course Moderator: Marilyn Kaufhold

Presenters: Sandra Murray, Premi Suresh, Lorena Vivanco

This is a comprehensive basic review of the sexual abuse medical evaluation for both prepubertal children and adolescents. Modules include epidemiology, anogenital anatomy, best practice examination procedure, acute and nonacute anogenital findings and a brief introduction to sexually transmitted infections in the context of child abuse. This Institute is intended for medical providers; however, others will be allowed to attend with the understanding that medical providers are the intended audience. Limited to 50 participants.

Rate $175 • Register online at sandiegoconference.org • Register by January 20, 2017 • After January 20, 2017: Register onsite

SUNDAY & MONDAY ■ JANUARY 29 & 30

National Criminal Justice Training Center (NCJTC), Fox Valley Technical College (FVTC)

CHILD HOMICIDE INVESTIGATIONS 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Presenters: Thomas Biesty, Brian Killacky, Candace H. Schoppe

Participants will learn the unique aspects of investigating a child homicide, interviewing and interrogation, methods to develop the suspect pool, the protocols of the autopsy, the forensic essentials, the criticality in determining the cause and manner of death and the importance of the prosecutor in gaining appropriate convictions.

Rate: $350 (includes program materials) • Register directly with NCJTC: ncjtc.org/CHI or if problems, contact at 855-866-2582 or email info@ncjtc.org • Visit ncjtc.org/CHI for info, training agenda and logistics

American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (APSAC)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29

C1. FUNCTIONAL FAMILY THERAPY 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Presenters: Michael Robbins, Sylvia Rowlands

This institute will provide a demonstration of the benefits of applying Functional Family Therapy (FFT) in an integrated continuum to children and families receiving preventive services. Personal, research and worldwide experience has shown that there is a group of carefully crafted interventions, which have proven effective and efficient for reducing and eliminating problems arising from impaired family functioning including child abuse and neglect without having to separate children from their families.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30

C2. THE MULTIDISCIPLINARY RESPONSE TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF MINORS 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Presenters: Jordan Greenbaum, Angela Rabbitt

This institute will help multidisciplinary professionals understand the complex issues of human trafficking. We will discuss the use of multidisciplinary teams for the prevention, identification, treatment of human trafficking, and the investigation and prosecution of offenders. Topics include: domestic minor sex trafficking; international sex and labor trafficking; youth vulnerabilities; trauma-informed approach to survivor care. Participants will engage in small and large group discussions to develop ideas for multidisciplinary work in their own communities. While not required, teams of participants from a single community are welcomed and encouraged.

C3. ADVANCED ISSUES IN CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Presenters: Debra Esernio-Jenssen, Barbara L. Knox

This institute will discuss important current and emerging issues in child sexual abuse—what's new, what's novel, and what needs improvement. Topics include: review of the current scientific literature regarding timing and types of forensic collections, advances in STI testing including current recommendations, and the significance of anogenital findings. In addition, updates of child trafficking and the medical evaluation will be reviewed. Finally, sexualization of children in the media and how it relates to child sexual abuse will be explored.

Rate for each of the above: $175 for APSAC Member; $200 for non-APSAC member

Register directly with APSAC at apsac.org or with syngling@apsac.org; Phone: 877-402-7722 toll free or 614-827-1321.

BECOMING TRAUMA-RESILIENCY INFORMED: HEALTH PERSPECTIVES AND DISCUSSION

8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Moderators: Randy Alexander, David Corwin

Presenters: Vincent Felitti, Susan Kelley, Jung-Jae Lee, Denyse Olson-Dorff, David Schneider, Machelle Madsen Thompson, Agnes Tiwari, Susie Wiet // Discussant: Tasneem Ismailji

Dr. Felitti starts the day with his current views of the Adverse Childhood Experiences Study findings and recent developments. Subsequent presentations and discussions focus on efforts and approaches to incorporate trauma and resiliency awareness into health and other systems. The Health Resilience Stress Questionnaire (HRSQ) being developed by Wiet, is presented along with research on resilience and the pioneering efforts of Gundersen Healthcare System to become one of, if not the first, healthcare system in the USA to integrate this knowledge throughout its entire health system. Trauma-resiliency developments in St. Louis, Florida, and Hong Kong are also described. The format provides ample time for discussion between presenters and participants regarding these evolving efforts.

REFUGEE AND DISPLACED CHILDREN: GLOBAL STRATEGIES TO HELP

8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Presenters: Bernard Gerbaka, Joan van Niekerk, Aseel Ross

The ISPCAN Global Institute will focus on the present international crisis of migrant and refugee children and their families, whose movement across Eastern to Western Europe, from Northern Africa to Europe, from North and Central Africa to Southern African countries, and across US borders has caused enormous stress to child protection services in the receiving countries. Many migrant families are fleeing war, conflict and poverty. The challenges extend to all aspects of child protection including policy, strategy and responsive programmes and their implementation. Those who work with migrant and refugee programmes will be informed by experts who work with these populations. Attendees have the opportunity to share their knowledge and experience with colleagues.

Rate: $125 ISPCAN members from developed countries; $65 ISPCAN members from developing countries; $175 Non-ISPCAN members

Register directly with ISPCAN at ispcan.org or call: 303-864-5223

PLENARY SESSION

10:00–11:30 AM

DRIVING SOCIAL GOOD WITH BIG DATA

—Mike Olson, MS, Co-founder, Chairman and Chief Strategy Officer, Cloudera Inc., San Francisco, California

Today, we face important social, ethical and legal challenges. These challenges span government, commercial and our day-to-day social structures. In the last decade, powerful new technologies that build on innovation have emerged. These technologies use data to quantify, model, analyze and predict events in the real world. In the decade ahead, big data and technology will shape how we approach prevention, response to child and family maltreatment, and transform how we do our work across all disciplines.
