American College of Nutrition® uncompromising science

57th annual conference Translational Nutrition: The Science of Personalized Nutrition

Join us November 9-11, 2016 at the Hilton San Diego Resort in San Diego, California immediately preceding before the Nutrition Pro 2016 Symposium. This conference is a must-attend for anyone interested in the field of nutrition science, and is a wonderful opportunity to connect with world-renowned researchers and clinicians to establish a network of like-minded professionals. Translate nutrition science into practice by exploring the science of personalized nutrition. CNSs and registered ACN conference attendees are eligible for a discounted registration fee! For more information, visit AmericanCollegeofNutrition.org/Conference.

Nutrition Pro 2016 Symposium Overview

This clinical symposium will bring together experts on two very important and timely topics, and is geared to all health professionals who utilize nutrition as a practice tool. Join us and add to your nutrition science knowledge and enhance your clinical skills.

The Board for Certification of Nutrition Specialists

The Board for Certification of Nutrition Specialists is the premier certification body providing credentialing of nutrition care professionals with advanced degrees and training in nutrition science. The BCNS' mission is to advance human health through the science and practice of professional nutrition care. Certified Nutrition Specialist® (CNS®) professionals are on the front lines using medical nutrition therapy and providing nutrition consultation services to battle the epidemic of obesity and chronic disease. The BCNS supports these efforts and certifies nutrition professionals that maintain the highest standard of nutrition competence. For more information on the BCNS, visit NutritionSpecialists.org.
