Welcome Letter

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

The Federation of European Societies of Neuropsychology (FESN) and the Hellenic Neuropsychological Society (HNPS) are proud to announce the 8th Scientific Meeting of the FESN & the 2nd Panhellenic Conference on Neuropsychology to be held in Thessaloniki, Greece, on September 27-29, 2023.

We look forward to welcoming you in person!

The meeting will offer world-class researchers presenting new data on scientific topics relevant to neuropsychology and to related fields to both research and clinical practice. It will host Symposia, Oral Communications and Poster Presentations while it will offer 4 Keynote Lectures, 5 invited Symposia, a Debate, an Open Discussion and the Cortex Prize Lecture.

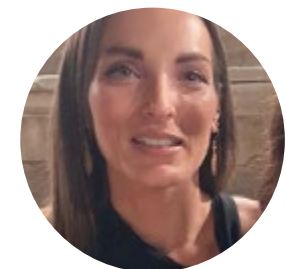

Thessaloniki, also known as “the bride of the Thermaikos Gulf”, is a port city, the second largest city in Greece, boasting structures from antiquity to modern day architecture, as well as several universities and colleges. It is a culinary capital, rich in history, as it is located at a crossroads between East and West. It is also known for its vivid nightlife, affordable eating, and shopping. The weather in September is pleasant, the beautiful beaches are easily accessible and the conference venue «Makedonia Palace Hotel» is located right on the beachfront, within walking distance from the city center. The city is easily accessible from most European capitals.

Socialization of science has suffered a huge blow due to COVID-19 pandemic. We believe and we hope it will be an opportunity to reunite, to see each other again and to make new contacts for our members and other attendees alike.

We look forward to seeing you at the 8th Scientific Meeting of the FESN & the 2nd Panhellenic Conference on Neuropsychology in Thessaloniki in September 2023.

Hans-Otto Karnath
President of the Federation of European Societies of Neuropsychology (FESN)

Athanasia Liozidou
*Chair of the FESN & HNPS 2023 Conference
President of The Hellenic
Neuropsychological Society (HNPS)*

Destination

The city of Thessaloniki

Friendly, charming and with a hint of mystery and wealth of cultural attractions, the second largest city in Greece is located in the northern part of the country. It is a longtime melting pot of cultures, a feature that is reflected in the spicy flavours with eastern influences, but is also visible in the city's architectural fabric, where Byzantine, neoclassical, Art Nouveau and Eclecticism, Art Deco and more styles combine in the city center.

Thessaloniki sprawls around an arc of coastline at the top of the Thermaic Gulf. The main area of interest to visitors is along the shore between the ferry port and the city's emblem, the White Tower and in the area that rises inland from here to the ancient city walls.

Thessaloniki offers a wide range of attractions -modern art and history museums, ancient Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman monuments, exhibitions, galleries, spas, restaurants, taverns and coffee shops; along with their unique exhibits and style, they all offer a rare combination of relaxation, safety and entertainment, the sine qua non elements for a successful conference destination.

Abstract Submission Guidelines

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

The Program Committee and the Local Organising Committee of the 8th FESN Scientific Meeting and of the 2nd Panhellenic Conference on Neuropsychology, welcome the submission of abstracts for original contributions to the field. Authors may submit abstracts relevant to the Conference Scientific Topics for an individual Oral contribution, a Poster contribution or a Symposium.

Submission Guidelines

Abstracts for individual Oral and Poster presentations and Symposia can be submitted by members of the national societies and by non-members via the conference website (www.fesn-hnps2023.gr) not later than 13 February 2023 by filling in the online submission form.

- Each author can submit a maximum of 3 abstracts (as corresponding author) and present a maximum of 2 abstracts, if the author is participating in more abstracts, they must be submitted and presented by other registered co-authors.
- All abstracts must be submitted and presented exclusively in English. Authors and speakers are encouraged to perform a careful check on the English language.
- Authors are exclusively responsible for the submission of their work according to the abstract submission guidelines and for submitting their abstract in due time according to the abstract submission deadline. Abstracts that do not comply with the guidelines or are submitted after the deadline will be automatically disqualified.
- During the submission process, all authors will be asked to upload as well, a ready for publication file, as described in the Abstract document specifications section.
- All submitted abstracts are subjected to an extensive peer review process. Authors do not have the possibility to revise abstracts at this stage. After the evaluation, corresponding authors will receive feedback. The Program Committee reserves the right to change the requested presentation type from Oral to Poster or from Poster to Oral.
- Accepted abstracts will be presented as Oral or Poster presentations or Symposia and will be published in the Abstract Book.

Instructions for the writing of the Abstracts

- The abstract must have a maximum length of 300 words.
- Statements such as "results will be discussed", "data will be presented" will not be accepted.
- Tables and illustrations may not be inserted.
- The title, the names of the authors, their affiliations, and the references should be inserted into the appropriate fields and not be repeated within the text of the abstract.
- Authors may include a maximum of 2 affiliations.
- Authors may insert a maximum of 3 references using the Vancouver reference style.
- The abstract should be structured into the following sections:
  1. Aims
  2. Method
  3. Results
  4. Discussion
  5. Conclusions

Abstract document specifications

Software: The abstracts should be typed on a word processor (".doc" or ".docx" format).

Font, size, spacing, alignment: They should be written in Calibri font 11 pt, single-spaced, without spaces between paragraphs and justified paragraph alignment.

Spacing, paragraphs: Text should be fully justified. There should be no spaces between paragraphs: title, authors and affiliated institutions/hospitals. There should be one single space between the affiliated institutions/hospitals and the abstract text.

Title: The title should be in Bold Sentence-case letters, as brief as possible (no more than two lines).

Authors: All of the names should be written in the nominative in Sentence-case letters; the surname should follow the first initial of the name; and the superscript should be inserted at the end with no space. The presenter's name should be underlined; the superscript should not be underlined. Listed names should be separated by a comma, e.g.

M. Papadopoulou<sup>1</sup>, A. Papadopoulos<sup>2</sup>

Affiliations: The name of the institution/University/Hospital etc must precede the location, if the location is not included in the name of the institution (e.g. Spine and Scoliosis Unit, "KAT" General Hospital of Attica, Greece or Department of Neurosurgery, 424 Army General Hospital, Thessaloniki, Greece). When more than one affiliation is included, the reference superscripts should be written before the name, e.g.

Keywords: Leave one line, 11pt between abstract text and keywords. Write the only the word "Keyword" in bold. A maximum of 3 keywords may be inserted.

Symposia

The proposals for Symposia can be submitted by both individual members and by National Societies. We encourage proposals on topics that capture the imagination and interest from a wide audience and that bring together experts from different countries (including top scientists from outside of Europe). It is important to note that there is no funding available from the FESN for delegates invited to speak at a symposium. Financial support from the National Societies FESN Symposia is highly appreciated. Proposals should include: The title and a description of the symposium

- The name of the organizer and the 4 speakers of the symposium (speakers must represent more than one country)
- The affiliations of the organizer and the speakers
- The 4 abstracts of the speakers composing the symposium
