JOIN US AT SKIN DISEASE EDUCATION FOUNDATION'S 42ND ANNUAL HAWAII DERMATOLOGY SEMINAR™

We explore the latest advances in the treatment and management of common and complex diseases of the skin, both for adults and children as well as new developments in aesthetic medicine. Our exceptional faculty will present clinically relevant information that you will find immediately useful in the care of your patients. This six-day meeting provides interactive presentations, case studies in medical dermatology, live-patient injection sessions and multiple workshops. Learn from the experts about acne, rosacea, actinic keratoses, skin cancers, psoriasis, atopic dermatitis, nonsurgical facial rejuvenation, psoriatic arthritis, surgical pearls, and much more.

Skin Disease Education Foundation's (SDEF) 42nd Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar's comprehensive agenda contains cutting edge, innovative and evolving issues relevant to practicing physicians and healthcare providers who treat diseases of the skin. Our scientific program has been designed to keep the clinician up-to-date on new developments within the field of dermatology.

This year we are offering the following interactive workshops: Dermoscopy: Tools to Use and Expert Practice Management.

We look forward to seeing you on Kauai at SDEF's 42nd Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar, February 4-9, 2018. Don't miss out; register today and save up to $145 with our first early bird discount which ends October 31, 2017. Additional discounts are available until January 1, 2018. Register early and save.

This Conference Is For You:

Dermatologists, dermatology residents, family physicians, internists, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, physician assistants, pharmacists and fellows will all gain important insights into the management of patients with skin diseases.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this live conference, participants should be better able to:

- Integrate into daily practice evidence based recommendations on new and emerging therapies for common dermatologic diseases.
- Implement updated strategies for managing acne, rosacea, atopic dermatitis, contact dermatitis and actinic keratosis.
- Explain the roles of currently available biologic agents in the treatment of psoriasis and psoriatic arthritis, and appropriately incorporate newer biologics into therapeutic practice as these become available.

- Describe the mechanisms of action, efficacy, and safety of the biologic agents used to treat psoriasis, as well as the factors involved in appropriate patient selection.
- Assess patients for comorbidities and manage psoriasis as well as associated comorbidities.
- Compare treatment options for hidradenitis suppurativa.
- Diagnose and manage patients with vitiligo.
- Describe the pathophysiology of keloids.
- Analyze treatment approaches for the pediatric patient with common as well as complex skin diseases.

- Incorporate the recent research advances in understanding and treating pediatric dermatology issues such as atopic dermatitis and pediatric acne.
- Discuss new approaches to therapy including pathway targeted therapy in the treatment of melanoma.
- Assess the role of diagnostic tools and technology in diagnosis and detection of skin cancers.
- Recognize the factors that are important in selecting appropriate filler agents for treating different areas of the face and targeted planar depths.
- Compare and contrast the efficacy and safety of agents, devices, and

- techniques currently available in aesthetic and procedural dermatology.
- Determine the appropriate nonsurgical techniques for facial rejuvenation based on an enhanced understanding of facial anatomy.
- Examine energy-based technology for body contouring and discuss appropriate patient selection criteria for utilizing these devices.
- Evaluate the role of dermoscopy in clinical practice and demonstrate enhanced skill in using this technique to diagnose dermatologic disorders.
- Analyze emerging treatments for onychomycosis.

Erik J. Stratman, MD

Chairman, Department of Dermatology
Marshfield Clinic
Marshfield, WI

General Dermatology Module

Skin Disease Education Foundation (SDEF) has been approved by the American Board of Dermatology (ABD) to produce self-assessment activities. Self-assessment activities are intended to be of value to the practicing dermatologist. SDEF is solely responsible for the content. Please be sure to report completion of any self-assessment programs on your MOC table located in your ABD profile (www.abderm.org).

ABD MOC has reciprocity with ABMS specialty boards.

About the SDEF MOC Program:

- The self-assessment questions will cover primarily general medical dermatology, but will also include pediatric dermatology and aesthetic and procedural dermatology.
- ARS questions throughout the program ask audience members clinically relevant knowledge or practice-related questions, individuals answer using an ARS transponder, and the resulting spread of answers by the entire audience is provided for all participants to see. The answers are then discussed in an evidence-based fashion. Exact number of credits will be determined. Check our website for updates.
