About The American Society of Hypertension, Inc.

The American Society of Hypertension, Inc., (ASH) is the largest organization of hypertension researchers and health care providers in the United States committed to eliminating hypertension and its consequences. ASH has a domestic and international membership of basic science and clinical investigators, physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners and pharmacists, as well as other individuals with a scientific interest in hypertension.

The mission of the Society is to translate and promote current research in hypertension and vascular disease into effective treatment strategies for patients with hypertension and associated disorders.

ASH is committed to:

- Enhancing the education and treatment of patients with hypertension
- Educating health care professionals regarding hypertension and current prevention and treatment strategies
- Assisting health care professionals in addressing the challenges of the modern-day care of patients with hypertension
- Advocating public policy that ensures patient access to high quality hypertension care and supports increased hypertension research
- Facilitating communication and collaboration among providers, investigators, policymakers, and patients in areas relating to hypertension and vascular health
- Promoting the career development of researchers in hypertension and associated disorders, including research in the pathobiology, prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and psychosocial aspects of hypertension

2016 Program and Registration Information

Friday, May 13, 2016 – Tuesday, May 17, 2016 at the New York Hilton Midtown, New York City

Continuing Education Information

In keeping with the purpose of the American Society of Hypertension, Inc. (ASH), the Thirty-first Annual Scientific Meeting is designed to encourage and promote the development, advancement, and exchange of fair and balanced information regarding the research, diagnosis and treatment of hypertension and related cardiovascular diseases with improved patient care and wellness outcomes as the underlying theme. The sessions will...

- Present and examine new findings on the physiology, pathophysiology, epidemiology, diagnosis, and management of hypertension and related conditions
- Review current state-of-the-art advances in managing particular groups of patients
- Evaluate specific treatment modalities and pharmacological agents

Target Audience

Physicians, scientists, pharmacists, physician assistants, nurses and other health care professionals with an interest in the mechanisms or management of hypertension and related diseases will benefit from attending Sessions, Symposia, Poster Sessions, and the Scientific Exposition.

This continuing education activity is provided through collaboration between the American Society of Hypertension and Professional Education Services Group (PESG). This activity will provide continuing education for physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and pharmacists as well as a general CE participation certificate for other attendees.

Physicians

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Professional Education Services Group and the Defense Centers of Excellence for Psychological Health and Traumatic Brain Injury (DCOE). Professional Education Services Group is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. This activity will provide a maximum of 30 hours of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit to the extent of their participation.

2016 Annual Scientific Meeting and Exposition

Friday, May 13, 2016 – Tuesday, May 17, 2016 at the New York Hilton Midtown, New York City

General Information

Meeting Venue

Headquarters Hotel

New York Hilton Midtown
1335 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10019
Phone: 1-212-586-7000
Fax: 1-212-315-1374

Sleeping Room Rate - $313 plus local and state tax.

Hotel Reservations

Make your hotel reservations using the ASH website – www.ash-us.org. Click onto the housing link and that will take you into New York Hilton reservation system, or CLICK New York Hilton Reservations. You will receive ASH Annual Meeting Rates.

All guests staying at the New York Hilton in the ASH block will receive complimentary internet access in their sleeping room.

Registration for the ASH Annual Meeting

Register for the ASH meeting using the ASH website – www.ash-us.org, or CLICK ASH Annual Meeting Registration. Full meeting registration entitles you to attend Hypertension for the Primary Care Clinician, Hypertension Highlights, Plenary Sessions, Scientific Sessions, Poster Sessions, Satellite Symposia, Embedded Symposia, Hypertension Resource Pavilion, and Social Events.

International Registrants

ASH strongly advises participants to determine their individual visa requirements. Individuals traveling to the United States from other countries require a passport and in some cases, a visitor's visa. Please check with your travel agent, airline or local embassy/consulate at least four (4) months before the meeting. A visa may take 8-12 weeks to be processed.

ASH's registration agent will provide letters of invitation for visa purposes by request. A Letter of Invitation is meant to help attendees obtain a visa and is not a commitment on the part of the organizers to provide any financial support. The decision to grant a visa belongs solely to the embassy/consulate. ASH cannot change the decision of the government agency.

Travel to the ASH Annual Meeting

New York is easily accessible from any city in the US or abroad via the John F. Kennedy International Airport, Newark Liberty International Airport and LaGuardia Airport. Once in the city, take the MTA subway and bus to negotiate your way around – whether you want to go to Chelsea, the Upper East Side, Broadway, Lincoln Center, or to Little Italy and Chinatown. There is so much to see and do just a subway ride away.

Climate

New York's weather is very seasonal. In January through March, temperatures stay around 30 degrees F. Snowfalls are not unusual. April and May escort in the tulips and daffodils with temperatures ranging from 40 to 50 degrees, but it can hit 70 degrees F.
