Seventh Annual Conference

National PROMs Summit

Friday 7 December 2018

De Vere West One Conference Centre, London

We are pleased to announce the Seventh Annual National Patient Reported Outcome Measure (PROMS) Summit developed in association with Mr Bibhas Roy Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, HICAT Member and PROMs 2.0 Lead.

This national conference will focus on PROMs in clinical practice; using case studies of PROMs changing clinical practice alongside expert sessions on subjects such as using PROMs for decision making, to change practice, and auditing and analysis of outlines. There will also be national updates on the future of PROMs, a masterclass aimed at improving the effectiveness of PROMs to change clinical practice and supplier presentation updating delegates on latest ePROMs developments.

This conference will enable you to:

- Network with colleagues who are working to improve the use of PROMs in clinical practice
- Learn from outstanding practice in using PROMs to improve patient care and clinical decision making
- Reflect on national developments and learning
- Improve the way you engage with patients and clinical staff to ensure compliance
- Develop your skills in using PROMs to measure longer term outcomes
- Understand how you can improve patient self reporting of adverse events within PROMs
- Identify key strategies for integrating PREMs and PROMs
- Understand how you can use PROMS in real-time to inform the conversation and optimise clinical opportunities and outcomes
- Ensure you are up to date with the latest evidence and international developments
- Understand how the use of electronic systems can improve the efficiency of PROMs reporting
- Self assess and reflect on your own practice
- Gain cpd accreditation points contributing to professional development and revalidation evidence

100% of delegates at our previous conference on this subject would recommend it to a colleagues
