Monday 18 March 2019 De Vere W1 Conference Centre London

Healthcare Conferences UK in association with Christopher Fincken, Independent Member UK Caldicott Guardian Council, (Chairman 2012-2017) are pleased to announce this Conference which will focus on the Caldicott Guardian and Decision Making – with particular emphasis on Ethical Decision Making and the Duty of Candour. Following the success of our previous Caldicott Guardian National Conferences, and feedback from our regular Caldicott Training Masterclasses, this conference will focus on developing your role as a Caldicott Guardian and developing your skills in leading Caldicott decision making in practice.

“Its not only about what you can do legally but what you should be doing morally and ethically. Many IG experts do not understand that there is an ethical side to this... sometimes its right to breach the law if its the right thing to do”

Dawn Monaghan Head of Data Sharing and Privacy NHS England, October 2017

This conference will enable you to:

- Network with fellow Caldicott Guardians and those working to deliver the Caldicott Role
- Understand and reflect on Caldicott decision making
- Update your knowledge on ethical decision making principles and frameworks and how you can implement these within your Caldicott role and decision making practice
- Learn from established practice in the delivery of Caldicott Principles
- Understand the legal and ethical implications of the Duty of Candour
- Learn from case review of difficult ethical Caldicott issues and how to use the national caldicott manual to improve consistency in practice
- Identify key strategies for dealing with difficult issues relevant to Caldicott practice
- Reflect on the inter relationship between legal and ethical issues
- Self assess and reflect on your own practice
- Gain CPD accreditation points contributing to professional development and revalidation evidence

100% of delegates at our previous conference on this subject would recommend it to a colleague
