Cancellation of the congress

In the event that the congress cannot be held or is postponed due to events beyond the control of the congress organisers (force majeure) or due to events which are not attributable to wrongful intent or gross negligence of the congress organisers, the congress organisers cannot be held liable by participants for any damages, costs, or losses incurred, such as transportation costs, accommodation costs, costs for additional orders, financial losses, etc.

Under these circumstances, the congress organisers reserve the right to either retain the entire registration fee and to use it for a future congress, or to reimburse the participant after deducting costs already incurred for the organisation of the congress and which could not be recovered from third parties.

Modification of the programme

The congress organisers reserve the right to modify the programme, which is published as an indication only.

Lost name badge

The congress name badge must be worn at all times during the congress. Access to the congress exhibition and sessions will not be granted without a proper name badge. If a participant loses, misplaces or forgets her name badge, an administrative fee of EUR 20 will be charged for a new name badge. Upon handing out a new name badge, the lost badge will be deactivated and becomes invalid.

Letter of invitation

Individuals requiring an official letter of invitation from the congress organisers can download the letter from their congress profile once full registration payment must have been received by IDF.

The letter of invitation does not financially oblige the congress organisers in any way. All expenses incurred in relation to the congress are the sole responsibility of the individual participant.

Data protection and sharing of contact details

The IDF Congress Secretariat will collect and store all personal data for the preparation and execution of the IDF Diabetes Complications and Foot Congress 2018. Data protection is warranted in accordance with the Directive 95/46/EC on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (the Data Protection Directive).

Liability and Damage

The congress organisers cannot be held responsible for any personal injury, loss, damage or accident to private property, or for additional expenses incurred as a result of delays or changes in air, rail, road or other services, strikes, sickness, weather and other causes.

The participant shall be responsible for any damage or loss caused by the act, default or negligence of the participant or her guest and shall pay on demand the amount required to make good or remedy any such damage.

The participant must ensure she or members of her party and anyone visiting them at the congress behave in such a way that they do not cause a nuisance or unreasonable disruption to the congress, other participants, the congress organisers or any other visitor of the congress venue.

The congress organiser does not accept liability for, and the participant is to indemnify the congress organiser against, any claims arising from:

- i. Failure to provide any of the services contracted, and the congress organisers reserve the right to alter or cancel any booking due to circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to industrial action, postal communications, flooding, storm, supply of gas, electricity and water, fire alarm evacuation, or any act of god. In such a case, the congress organiser will use all commercially reasonable efforts to offer alternative services.

- ii. Accident, injury or damage to the participant, their guest's contractors and agents, or their respective property due to their own actions, neglect or actions of others.

The participant should make sure that they are fully insured against all losses or liabilities referred to in this clause. The congress organiser reserves the right to refuse to accept any booking if the participant cannot provide proof that she has sufficient insurance to cover her liability under this clause.

Fulfilment and jurisdiction

This contract is subject to Belgian law. The terms of this contract shall be fulfilled in Hyderabad, India but, in the event of any legal claims arising from either party, Brussels in Belgium shall be the sole court of jurisdiction.
