

13th Bleeding, clotting and haemorrhage – an update

Thursday 14 December 2017

Organiser: Dr Ravi Rao Baikady, London

Venue: Cavendish Conference Centre, 22 Duchess Mews, Marylebone, London, W1G 9DT

Programme

09:00 Registration & coffee

09:30 Introduction
Dr Ravi Rao Baikady, London

Session 1: Management of anaemia - challenges

09:40 Anaemia in surgery: are we there yet? Canadian experience
Dr Keyvan Karkouti, Toronto, Canada

10:05 Perioperative anaemia: new goals. European experience
Prof Donat Spahn, Zurich, Switzerland

10:30 Perioperative anaemia: UK challenges
Mr Toby Richards, Vascular and Endovascular Surgeon, London

10:50 Discussion

11:00 Tea & coffee

Session 2: Management of major haemorrhage

11:30 Management of major trauma – lessons learned?
Prof Marc Maegele, Köln, Germany

11:40 Point of care testing during major haemorrhage
Dr Keyvan Karkouti, Toronto, Canada

12:00 Debate: Haemoglobin optimisation
Restrictive Hb: Prof Mike Murphy, Oxford
Liberal Hb: Dr Ravi Gill, Southampton

12:25 Discussion

13:00 Lunch

Session 3: New developments in Haemorrhage management

14:00 Managing bleeding trauma
Prof Marc Maegele, Köln, Germany

14:30 Tranexamic acid for all
TBC

14:50 Cell salvage – what's new?
TBC

15:00 Discussion

15:10 Tea & coffee

Session 4: Specific haemorrhage management

15:30 Obstetric haemorrhage
TBC

15:50 Cardiac surgery
Dr Ravi Gill, Southampton

16:10 Modern war trauma: is the world learning anything?
Mr David Nott, London

16:40 Discussion and depart