

Scientific Program

Friday, May 4, 2018

|               |                                                                                                 |                                                                        |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09:00 - 10:45 | Diabetes SessionModerated by: Jamal Jubeih & Shady Tabbah                            |                                                                        |
| 09:00         | Type 1 Diabetes in Children: What Every Physician Should Know                                   | Elham Alamari                                                          |
| 09:30         | It is Not Always Type 1 Diabetes (ND, T2DM, and MODY)                                           | Asma Deeb                                                              |
| 10:00         | Glucose Monitoring: Requirements and Options                                                    | Amani Osman                                                            |
| 10:25         | Questions                                                                                       |                                                                        |
| 10:45         | Coffee break                                                                                    |                                                                        |
| 11:00 - 12:00 | Thyroid SessionModerated by: Asma Deeb & Noura Al Hassani                            |                                                                        |
| 11:00         | Congenital Hypothyroidism: The Role of Primary Care                                             | Mustafa Al Qaisy                                                       |
| 11:25         | Common Thyroid Abnormalities: Defer or Refer                                                    | Walid Kaplan                                                           |
| 11:50         | Questions                                                                                       |                                                                        |
| 12:00         | Prayer & Lunch Break                                                                            |                                                                        |
| 13:30         | Industry Talk                                                                                   |                                                                        |
| 14:00 - 15:30 | Puberty Disorders SessionModerated by: Hala Sakkal & Hasan Mundi                     |                                                                        |
| 14:00         | Delayed Puberty: How to Start the Process from your Clinic?                                     | Asma Jasim Binjab                                                      |
| 14:25         | Precocious Puberty: Is it Really Precocious?                                                    | Hanaa Zidan                                                            |
| 14:50         | Congenital Adrenal Hyperplasia: Critical Management                                             | Sareea Al Remeithi                                                     |
| 15:15         | Questions                                                                                       |                                                                        |
| 15:30         | Coffee Break                                                                                    |                                                                        |
| 16:00 - 17:30 | Workshops                                                                                |                                                                        |
| 16:00         | GROUP AAdrenal Insufficiency:When to Expect, How to ManageSareea Al Remeithi | GROUP BShort StatureCase ScenariosSuha Hadji        |
| 16:45         | GROUP ADiabetes and TechnologyHands-on SessionShadi Tabba                    | GROUP BSick Days Management in DiabetesNoura Al Hassani |

Scientific Program

Saturday, May 5, 2018

|       |                                                                             |                       |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 08:00 | Growth Short Stature Session                                         |                       |
| -     | Moderated by: Sherif Elrefee & Kiran Choudhry                               |                       |
| 10:15 |                                                                             |                       |
| 08:00 | Abnormal Growth in the Eye of Pediatric Endocrinologist                     | Jamal Al Jubeh        |
| 09:15 | GH Treatment: Who, When, How?                                               | Walid Kaplan          |
| 10:00 | Questions                                                                   |                       |
| 10:15 | Coffee break                                                                |                       |
| 10:30 | Calcium &amp; Bones Session                                          |                       |
| -     | Moderated by: Suha Hadi & Varsha Malpani                                    |                       |
| 12:00 |                                                                             |                       |
| 10:30 | Calcium Tests: Assessment and Interpretation                                | Noura Al Hassani      |
| 11:00 | Vitamin D Deficiency: Myths and Facts (or: Anticipate, Diagnose and Manage) | Manal Mustafa Khadora |
| 11:30 | Breakable Bones Risks of Osteoporosis: Who and How to Screen                | Mireille Bejjani      |
| 12:00 | Industry Talk                                                               |                       |
| 12:30 | Pediatric Endocrinology Emergencies                                         | Nandu Thalange        |
| 13:10 | Closure and Lunch                                                           |                       |