

Monday 8th April

|                      |                                                                                                                           |                                                        |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| 13:00                | Welcome and Introduction                                                                                                  | Adrian Banning                                         |
| 13:00 - 15:00 | SESSION 1: The PathwayChairs: Clare Appleby and Raj Kharbanda                                           |                                                        |
| 13:05 - 13:20        | TAVI in the UK in 2024: What Does the Data Tell UsWaiting Times/Centre Volumes/Patient Cohort                         | Raj Kharbanda                                          |
| 13:20 - 13:40        | The TAVI Clinic How We Organise it and WhyHow Often? Who Does It? What Tests?                                         | Paul Williams andJo Shannon                        |
| 13:40 - 14:00        | The MDT – How We Organise It and WhyAll AS Cases? Admin Support? Waiting Times? Meeting Length?                       | Mohamed FaragClare Appleby                         |
| 14:00                | Live Case: WolverhamptonPanel: Angie Gattas, Will Davies and Andreas Ruck                               | Operators: Saib Khogali                                |
| 14:30 - 14:45        | In My Opinion Which Patients Need a Self-Expanding Valve                                                                  | Philip MacCarthy                                       |
| 14:45 - 15:00        | The Procedure, How We Perform It and WhyAnaesthetists/Imaging? Staffing? PPM strategy                                 | Sagar DoshiAngela McInerney                        |
| 15:00                | Refreshment Break                                                                                                         |                                                        |
| 15:30 - 17:00 | SESSION 2: Valve-in-ValveChairs: Adrian Banning and Olaf Wendler                                        |                                                        |
| 15:30 - 15:50        | TAVI Valve-in-ValveMy Experience – When to Crack and How                                                              | Andreas Ruck                                           |
| 15:50 - 16:10        | Insights from the Bench                                                                                                   | Chris Frawley                                          |
| 16:10 - 17:00        | Case Reviews – Valve-in-ValveGood, Bad and The Ugly                                                                   | Chris CookRichard AndersonMick Ozkor           |
| 17:00 - 18:00        | Evening Seminar: Where Are the Road Blocks And Speed Humpsfor TAVI in 2024?What Three Things Must Change? | Mark SpenceWill WoanJohn ByrneOlaf Wendler |
| 19:30                | Dinner                                                                                                                    |                                                        |

Supported by

Tuesday 9th April

|                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                    |                                          |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
| 09:00 – 11:00 SESSION 3: Condundrums in 2024Chairs: Sam Dawkins and TBC                                 |                                                                                                    |                                          |
| 09:00 – 09:30                                                                                                                    | Debate Session: I Believe Commissural Alignment Should be Considered in Every Case          | Pro: Chris MalkinCon: Adrian Banning |
| 09:30                                                                                                                            | Live Case: OxfordPanel: Ian Cox, Ranjit More, Elved Roberts and Karim Ratib      | Operators: Tom Cahill and Raj Kharbanda  |
| 10:30 – 11:00                                                                                                                    | Debate Session: I Believe Coronary Angiography Is Not Necessary For Any Patient Before TAVI | Pro: Tito KabirCon: Mick Ozkor       |
| 11:00 – 11:30                                                                                                                    | Debate Session: I Believe We Should Pace Pre-TAVI Patients With Pre-Procedure RBBB?         | Pro: Tom CahillCon: John Rawlins     |
| 11:30 – 13:00 SESSION 4: Tricuspid: Has It Arrived?Chairs: Ghada Mikhail and TBC                        |                                                                                                    |                                          |
| 11:30 – 12:30                                                                                                                    | Recorded Case TricuspidPanel: Mamta Buch, Tiffany Patterson and Alison Duncan    |                                          |
| 12:30 – 12:45                                                                                                                    | Focus on TricuspidTricuspid Valve Anatomy – What Do I Need To Know                      | Alison Duncan                            |
| 12:45 – 13:00                                                                                                                    | What Is The Data For Tricuspid Intervention and What More Do We Need For It Be Commissioned        | Sam Dawkins                              |
| 13:00                                                                                                                            | Lunch                                                                                              |                                          |
| 13:45 – 14:45 SESSION 5: Learning From History: Sometimes The Hard Way!Chairs: Tom Cahill and Jon Byrne |                                                                                                    |                                          |
| 13:45 – 14:00                                                                                                                    | Case Review: In Retrospect, Perhaps This Was The Wrong Valve For This Patient               | Nick Cruden                              |
| 14:00 – 14:15                                                                                                                    | Case Review: In Retrospect, This Was The Wrong Vascular Approach For This TAVI Patient      | Jaydeep Sarma                            |
| 14:15 – 14:30                                                                                                                    | Case Review: This is How I Managed Coronary Access in this Challenging Case                 | Colum Owens                              |
| 14:30 – 14:45                                                                                                                    | Final Thoughts and Thank You                                                                       | Adrian Banning                           |

Supported by