

PRELIMINARY TIMETABLE AS OF 8 MARCH 2017
*SUBJECT TO CHANGE

THURSDAY, 1 JUNE 2017

|             |                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Time        | GIRALDA I-II                                                                                                                                                     |
| 12:30-13:30 | Industry Session: Workshop / Symposium                                                                                                                           |
| 13:30-15:30 | Best Abstract Presentations                                                                                                                                      |
| 15:30-17:30 | Session 1a: IntroductionIntroduction of the Program and its ObjectivesArun J. Sanyal (USA); Rifaat Safadi (Israel); Quentin M. Anstee (UK) |
| 15 mins     |                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 20 mins     | Session 1b: NAFLD the Big PictureHistological Definition of NAFLDPierre Bedossa (France)                                                   |
| 20 mins     | Clinical-laboratory Assessment of NAFLDPuneet Puri (USA)                                                                                              |
| 20 mins     | Imaging and Elastography-based ApproachesLaurent Castera (France)                                                                                     |
| 20 mins     | Best Practices in Disease Assessment in Daily CareMary Rinella (USA)                                                                                  |
| 15 mins     | Panel (needs to have all stakeholders)                                                                                                                           |
| 17:30-18:00 | Coffee Break, Exhibition & Poster Viewing                                                                                                                        |

|             |                                                                                                |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 18:00-19:30 | Session 3: Recognizing NAFLD in Your Practice                                           |
| 25 mins     | Why Should You Care about NAFLD?Quentin M. Anstee (UK)                              |
| 25 mins     | How Common is NASH in your Diabetes Clinic?Elisabetta Bugianesi (Italy)             |
| 25 mins     | How Common is NASH in Primary Care?Stephen A. Harrison (USA)                        |
| 15 mins     | Panel Discussion                                                                               |
| 19:30-21:00 | Opening Ceremony                                                                        |
|             | Keynote Lecture: The Social, Economic and Public Health Impact of ObesityTBA |
|             | followed by Networking Reception                                                        |

FRIDAY, 2 JUNE 2017

NAFLD AS PART OF A MULTI DISCIPLINARY DISEASE

| Time                                                                               | Hall AHall B                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00-10:0025 mins25 mins25 mins25 mins20 mins | Session 4: NASH and Cardiovascular DiseaseNAFLD and Cardiovascular Disease- Weighing the Evidence CriticallyKhurram Nasir (USA)Atherogenic Dyslipidemia and NAFLDArun J. Sanyal (USA)Cardiomyopathy Associated with NAFLDMohammed Siddiqui (USA)Coagulation and NAFLDJ.A.(Ton) Lisman (Netherlands)Panel Discussion – All including chairs                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 10:00-10:30                                                                        | Coffee Break, Exhibition &amp; e-Poster ViewingBest Poster Presentations in E-Poster Area                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10:30-12:3020 mins20 mins20 mins40 mins20 mins | Session 5: Diabetes and NAFLDDiabetes and NAFLD - is it One Disease Two Target OrgansJerry L. Nadler (USA)Towards Diabetes Cure-implications for NAFLDManu V. Chakravarty (USA)Entero-hepatic Lipid-signaling in the Metabolic Syndrome and NAFLDBart Staels (France)The Great Debate: Will NAFLD Become an Irrelevant Clinical Entity with Tight Glycemic ControlHannele Yki-Järvinen, Finland - YESMaría Teresa Arias-Loste, Spain - NOAudience questions & responses by speakersPanel Discussion |
| 12:30-14:00                                                                        | Lunch, Exhibition &amp; e-Poster Viewing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 12:30-14:00                                                                        | Industry Session: Workshop / Symposium                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 14:00-15:3025 mins                                                             | Session 6: Drug Safety in a Primary Care SettingNAFLD as a manifestation of DILI in HIV-infected populationLawrence Serfaty (France)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

|             |                                                                                                            |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 mins     | Challenges in Assessment of DILI in Obese Diabetic IndividualsRaul J. Andrade ( Spain )  |
| 25 mins     | Drug Induced Liver Injury & NAFLD - Do's and Don'ts of Medical TherapyArie Regev ( USA ) |
| 15 mins     | Audience questions & responses by speakers                                                                 |
| 15:30-16:00 | Coffee Break, Exhibition &amp; e-Poster Viewing                                                     |
| 16:00-17:30 | Session 7: NASH in Pediatric Practice                                                               |
| 25 mins     | Is NAFLD in Children the Same Disease as in Adults?Valerio Nobili ( Italy )              |
| 25 mins     | Perspectives on NAFLD from a Pediatric Endocrinology ClinicSonia Caprio ( USA )          |
| 25 mins     | The Trans-Atlantic Pediatric NASH-TARGET StudyMiriam Vos ( USA )                         |
| 15 mins     | Panel Discussion (Best practices)                                                                          |

SATURDAY, 3 JUNE 2017
NAFLD THE LIVER DISEASE

| Time                   | Hall A                                                                                                                                                                               |
|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00-09:3020 mins | Session 8: Liver-related Outcomes in NAFLDNAFLD and liver cancerTBC                                                                                            |
| 20 mins                | The Bidirectional Evolution of NAFLDArun J. Sanyal (USA)                                                                                                                  |
| 40 mins                | The GREAT DEBATE- Is it Time to Drop Liver Histology as the Anchor for Assessment of NAFLD Evolution?Yes- Lawrence Castera (France)No- Pierre Bedossa (France) |
| 10 mins                | Audience questions to both speakers                                                                                                                                                  |
| 09:30-10:00            | Coffee Break, Exhibition &amp; e-Poster Viewing                                                                                                                               |
| 10:00-12:00            | Session 9: The NASH Target – Allocation of High Risk PopulationsWhat Should the Diabetologist do with his NASH PatientItamar Raz (Israel)                  |
| 12:00-13:30            | Lunch, Exhibition &amp; e-Poster Viewing                                                                                                                                      |
| 13:30-15:30            | Session 10: What to do When You Find the Disease – Behavior Modification                                                                                                      |
| 25 mins                | Managing the Low Risk Patient...Providing Practical Advice Regarding Diet and Exercise – Hepatologist PerspectiveManuel Romero Gomez (Spain)                              |
| 25 mins                | Managing the Low Risk Patient...Providing Practical Advice Regarding Diet and Exercise – Nutritionist PerspectiveShira Zelber-Sagi (Israel)                               |
| 25 mins                | Food Addiction, Impulsivity and Eating Disorders in Patients with NAFLDGerry Moeller, USA                                                                                 |
| 25 mins                | Alcohol Consumption in the Obese Diabetic Subject- How Much or How LittleRamon Bataller, USA                                                                              |
| 20 mins                | Panel Discussion                                                                                                                                                                     |

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 15:30-16:00 | Coffee Break, Exhibition & e-Poster Viewing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 16:00-18:00 | Session 11: Therapeutic Landscape for NASH Chair: Manuel Romero-Gomez, Spain 25 mins Current Compounds in Pivotal TrialsVlad Ratziu (France) 25 mins Targets Under Evaluation in Early Phase TrialsQuentin M. Anstee (UK) 25 mins Drugs You Can Use in Your Office TodayArun Sanyal 25 mins Bariatric Surgery-What is its RoleRifaat Safadi (Israel) 20 mins Panel Discussion |
| 18:00-18:15 | Closing Remarks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |