

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Symposium by the Sea 2023

August 3-6, 2023

Hyatt Regency Coconut Point in Bonita Springs, FL

Deadline: January 16, 2023

Apply Now

The Florida College of Emergency Physicians (FCEP), in conjunction with the Florida Emergency Medicine Foundation (FEMF), invites you to present at its 52nd Annual Meeting: *Symposium by the Sea 2023. Help advance best practices in emergency medicine by contributing your knowledge and expertise through continuing education for your colleagues.

Symposium by the Sea participants include emergency physicians, residents, nurses, physician assistants and medical students. Your presentation should be tailored appropriately for this audience.

The Planning Committee is looking for evidence-based content on the following subjects:

- Pediatrics
- Resuscitation, critical care and trauma
- Billing & coding
- DIHE
- Resilience & wellness
- Resident & student education
- New technologies in emergency medicine
- Professional development and leadership
- EM workforce
- Other relevant topics that are cutting edge in advancing emergency medicine

Types of sessions:

- Pre-conference workshops (3-8 hours)
- Skills labs (60-120 mins)
- General and breakout sessions (55 mins)
- Rapid fire sessions (25 mins)
- New speaker series (15 mins)*

*Open to those who have never lectured before! New speakers will receive confidential feedback on their presentations following the event.

If you are interested in presenting at Symposium by the Sea 2023, please fill out the application here by January 16, 2023. All faculty receive free conference registration and are encouraged to attend other events at SBS 2023.

Please contact FCEP's Events & Education Manager, Diane Bennett, at dbennett@emlrc.org with any questions about the application process.

Sincerely,

Shayne Gue, MD, FACEP
Symposium by the Sea Planning Committee Co-Chair

Shiva Kalidindi, MD, FACEP
Symposium by the Sea Planning Committee Co-Chair