

ONCOLOGY MANAGEMENT SUMMIT

Advance Value-Based Initiatives, Improve Quality, and Coordinate Complex Care Needs

DECEMBER 7-8, 2017 | ROSEN CENTRE HOTEL | ORLANDO, FL

DAY ONE – THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2017

|       |                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30  | SUMMIT REGISTRATION AND MORNING COFFEE                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                 |
| 8:30  | Chairperson's Welcome and Opening Remarks                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                 |
| 8:45  | KEYNOTE ADDRESS: Assess the Current Status of the OCM and the Future Outlook for Payers and Providers |                                                                                                                                                 |
| 9:30  | Use Clinical Pathways to Increase Reimbursement and Improve Coordination of Care                             |                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10:15 | NETWORKING AND REFRESHMENT BREAK                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                 |
|       | HEALTH PLAN TRACK                                                                                     | CARE PROVIDER TRACK                                                                                                                      |
|       | ADDRESS THE CHALLENGES AND SUCSESSES OF THE ONCOLOGY CARE MODEL                                       | INCREASE COLLABORATION ACROSS THE CONTINUUM TO PROVIDE MORE COORDINATED CARE                                                             |
| 10:45 | Apply Lessons Learned from the First Year of OCM Implementation                                              | Use a Proactive Approach to Discharge Planning and Transitions to Post-Acute Services to Better Coordinate Care                                 |
| 11:30 | CASE STUDY: Examine Innovations in Oncology Management through the Creation of Oncology Medical Homes | Increase the Interoperability of Electronic Medical Records Between Clinical and Post-Acute Services to Improve Coordination of Care            |
| 12:15 | LUNCHEON                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                 |
|       | NAVIGATE SITE OF SERVICE AND CARE COORDINATION CHALLENGES TO ENSURE APPROPRIATE CARE                  | ADDRESS THE COMPLEX FINANCIAL NEEDS OF ONCOLOGY PATIENTS THROUGH TARGETED SERVICES                                                       |
| 1:30  | Understand Payer and Provider Considerations for Site of Service Determination to Align Expectations         | Work with Payers and Pharmacists to Reduce Drug Spend While Ensuring High Quality Care                                                          |
| 2:15  | Emphasize the Importance of Care Management to Decrease Costs and Prevent Readmissions                       | Expand Your Financial Counseling Services as Part of a Comprehensive Care Management Process                                                    |
| 3:00  | NETWORKING AND REFRESHMENT BREAK                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                 |
|       | COLLABORATE TO IMPLEMENT QUALITY INITIATIVES IN ONCOLOGY MANAGEMENT                                   | EXPAND THE ONCOLOGY CARE PLAN WITH ESSENTIAL SERVICES TO IMPROVE QUALITY OF LIFE                                                         |
| 3:30  | Assess the Industry and Community Partnerships Available to Build a More Robust Quality Focus                | Integrate Counseling and Social Worker Capabilities Into the Care Plan to Address Psychosocial Health Issues                                    |
| 4:15  | Describe the Resources and Buy-In Needed to Get a Value-Based Pilot Off the Ground                           | CASE STUDY: Use Individualized Survivorship Plans to Improve Quality of Care Beyond the Initial Cancer Treatment and Reduce Readmissions |
| 5:00  | COCKTAIL AND NETWORKING RECEPTION                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                 |

DAY TWO – FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2017

|       |                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                    |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00  | MORNING COFFEE                                                                                                              |                                                                                                    |
| 8:30  | Chairperson's Welcome and Review of Day One                                                                                 |                                                                                                    |
| 8:45  | Address the Rising Costs of Drugs Amidst a Focus on Personalized Medicine                                                   | CASE STUDY: Discuss Advance Directives and End of Life Decisions to Improve Quality of Life |
|       | USE DATA TO IMPROVE QUALITY, DECREASE COSTS, AND IDENTIFY AREAS FOR IMPROVEMENT                                      |                                                                                                    |
| 9:30  | Harness the Power of Quality Outcomes Data Being Collected through Value-Based Initiatives                                  |                                                                                                    |
| 10:15 | NETWORKING AND REFRESHMENT BREAK                                                                                            |                                                                                                    |
| 10:45 | Work with Payers to Reduce Delays in Reimbursement and Grow the Amount of Accepted Claims                                   |                                                                                                    |
| 11:30 | Use Non-Medical Data to Find Social Determinants of Health in Order to Provide Better Support Services and Improve Outcomes |                                                                                                    |
| 12:15 | CLOSE OF SUMMIT                                                                                                             |                                                                                                    |