

MASTERCOURSE PROGRAMME

Friday, 12 April 2024

08:00 – 18:00

Registration

08:30-08:45

Welcome and Introduction & Housekeeping Information

Master Course Lectures

8:45- 9:15

New vaccines and schedules to prevent pneumococcus

Speaker: Shamez Ladhani, UK

9:15-9:45

We are much closer to RSV prevention

Speaker: Federico Martinon-Torres, Spain

9:45-10:15

Meningococcus: How best to prevent a moving target?

Speaker: Shamez Ladhani, UK

10:15-10:30

Q&A

10:30-11:00

Coffee Break and Exhibition Viewing

Interactive case session: Respiratory infections

11:00-13:00

Case Studies

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Presenters

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Chair

.....,

Facilitator

.....,

MASTERCOURSE PROGRAMME

Friday, 12 April 2024

13:00-13:45

Lunch Break and Exhibition Viewing

Interactive case session: Skin and soft tissue infections

13:45- 15:45

Case Studies

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Presenters

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Chair

.....,

Facilitator

.....,

15:45-16:15

Coffee Break and Exhibition Viewing

16:15-16:45

It is time to put an end to varicella

Speaker: Adam Finn, UK

16:45-17:15

The many faces of Streptococcus pyogenes infection in children

Speaker: Catarina Gouveia, Portugal

17:15-17:45

Another pharyngitis... and now?

Speaker: Fernanda Rodrigues, Portugal

17:45-18:00

Q&A

Conclusions of the day

MASTERCOURSE PROGRAMME

Saturday, 13 April 2024

08:00 – 18:00

Registration

Interactive case session: The neonate with fever

8:30–10:30

Case Studies

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Presenters

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Chair

.....,

Facilitator

.....,

10:30–11:00

Coffee Break and Exhibition Viewing

Master Course Lectures – Chairs:,

11:00–11:30

Rash: Is it an infection? Is it allergy?

Speaker: Ricardo Fernandes, Portugal

11:30–12:00

The febrile neonate – lumbar puncture Yes or No / To LP (lumbar puncture) or not to LP

Speaker: Javier Benito, Spain

12:00–12:30

Antibiotics for common infections – as long as necessary, as short as possible

Speaker:

12:30–13:00

Q&A

Course assessment and conclusions