

SATURDAY 13 MAY 2017

|                               | TRIBUNA                                                              | AUDITORI                                                             | FUNDACIO  | PARIS            | PRESS            | HONOR ANTE  |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|------------------|------------------|-------------|
| 9:3011:00                 | The landscape of the future                                          |                                                                      |           |                  |                  |             |
| COFFEE BREAK                  |                                                                      |                                                                      |           |                  |                  |             |
| 11:3013:00                | UEFA elite club injuries : Football Research Group trends analysis   | Managing today's common footballing injuries                         | FREE ORAL | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| 13:0014:30LUNCH BREAK | COMPANY WORKSHOP                                                     |                                                                      | FREE ORAL | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP | FREE POSTER |
| 14:3016:00                | The management of ACL injuries: past experience and future direction | OPEN DEBATEHow to embed scientific research in daily practice?   | FREE ORAL | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| BREAK                         |                                                                      |                                                                      |           |                  |                  |             |
| 16:3018:00                | Biomechanical testing and neuromotory training to prevent ACL injury | OPEN DEBATEHow to implement prevention program within your team? | FREE ORAL | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |

SUNDAY 14 MAY 2017

|                               | TRIBUNA                                                     | AUDITORI                                                                         | FUNDACIO         | PARIS            | PRESS            | HONOR ANTE  |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|-------------|
| 8:3010:00                 | The new border of pain management                           | The future direction of hip and groin injury management                          | FREE ORAL        |                  | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| 10:0011:30                | Evaluating functional outcomes: equipment and wearable tech | The future of sport surgery: sparing the scalpel?                                | FREE ORAL        | CONTEST          | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| COFFEE BREAK                  |                                                             |                                                                                  |                  |                  |                  |             |
| 12:0013:30                | Optimising functional recovery after football injuries      | New input to prevent and manage knee OA evolution                                | FREE ORAL        | CONTEST          | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| 13:3015:00LUNCH BREAK | Contest ceremony                                            | COMPANY WORKSHOPIntroduction to Regenerative Medicine by Muscle Tech Network | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP | FREE POSTER |
| 15:0016:30                | Hamstring injuries: our daily battlefield                   | Mesenchymal stem cells as tool for sports injury                                 | FREE ORAL        | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |
| BREAK                         |                                                             |                                                                                  |                  |                  |                  |             |
| 17:0018:30                | Pushing forward conservative management of tendons          | Alternative approach in cartilage repair                                         | FREE ORAL        | COMPANY WORKSHOP | COMPANY WORKSHOP |             |

MONDAY 15 MAY 2017

|                               | TRIBUNA                                                | AUDITORI                                               |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:3011:00                 | Managing individual player workloads across the season | The use of PRP in sports recovery                      |
| COFFEE BREAK                  |                                                        |                                                        |
| 11:3013:00                | Working with the reality of team training              | Combined biological approaches to help sport injury    |
| 13:0014:30LUNCH BREAK | COMPANY WORKSHOP                                       |                                                        |
| 14:3016:00                | Interview with the ManagerRecovery Strategies      | Research, clinical trials and practical experience     |
| BREAK                         |                                                        |                                                        |
| 16:3018:00                |                                                        | Regenerative medicine regulations in clinical practice |