

MICHIGAN ORTHOPAEDIC SOCIETY
and Wm. Beaumont Hospitals Continuing Medical Education present
2017 Annual Orthopaedic Trauma Program
St. John's Conference Center, Plymouth, MI
Wednesday, April 5, 2017

- 8:00am Welcome – James Goulet, MD
Program Coordinator
Professor, Dept. of Orthopaedic Surgery
Chief, Orthopaedic Trauma
University of Michigan
- 8:05am Clifford Jones, MD
The Core Institute
Phoenix AZ
“Massive lower extremity trauma: considerations for limb salvage and amputation in 2017”
- 8:30am Discussion
- 8:40am Stephen A. (Andy) Sems, MD
Assistant Professor
Chief of Orthopaedic Trauma
Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
Mayo Clinic
“Evaluation and management of lower limb post-traumatic deformities”
- 9:05am Discussion
- 9:15 Cyril Mauffrey, MD
Director of Orthopaedic Trauma and Research
Denver Health Medical Center,
Associate Professor, Orthopaedics
University of Colorado School of Medicine
“How I manage tibial segmental bone defects”
- 9:40am Discussion
- 9:50am Break with Refreshments
- 10:15am Paul Cederna, MD, FACS
Chief, Section of Plastic Surgery
Robert Oneal Professor of Plastic Surgery
Professor, Department of Biomechanical Engineering
University of Michigan School of Medicine
“Making lower limb amputations more predictable. Use of regenerative peripheral nerve interfaces for treatment of symptomatic neuromas”
- 10:40am Discussion

MOS Annual Orthopaedic Trauma Program

- 10:45am Thomas Ellis, MD
Orthopaedic One
Dublin, Ohio
“Evaluation of Hip Pain Following Trauma”
- 11:05am Discussion
- 11:10am Stephanie Johnson, Kandler, Reed, Khoury and Muchmore, Lobbyist, MOS “2016-2017
Legislative Update and the MOS PAC: Achievements of the MOS and What to Look Forward to.”
- 11:25am Buffet Lunch – Attendees to return to meeting facility for a working lunch.
- 11:45am Working Lunch
James A Goulet, MD - Moderator
“Case Challenges” Panel/Audience Case Review and Discussion
- 12:35pm Cyril Mauffrey, MD
“High Energy Pelvic Ring Injuries: the A, B and C’s”
- 1:00pm Discussion
- 1:10pm Clifford Jones, MD
“Syndesmotic injuries: recognition, treatment, and effect on outcome”
- 1:35pm Discussion
- 1:45pm Break with Refreshments
- 2:05pm Stephen A. (Andy) Sems, MD
“Tibial pilon fractures: How to stay out of trouble”
- 2:25pm Discussion
- 2:30pm Aaron Perdue, MD
Assistant Professor, Dept. of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of Michigan
“ Proximal humeral fractures: Keys to recognizing and treating the challenging case ”
- 2:55pm Discussion
- 3:00pm Mark Hake, MD
Assistant Professor, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of Michigan
“Tibial plateau fractures: Not all the same ”

3:25pm Discussion

MOS Annual Orthopaedic Trauma Program

3:30pm Clifford Jones, MD
“Proximal femoral fractures: Keys to recognizing and treating the challenging case”

3:50pm Discussion

4:00pm Adjournment

In connection with reporting requirements as outlined in the Physician Payment Sunshine Act, the Michigan Orthopaedic Society is required to provide to Beaumont Continuing Medical Education the names of attendees who receive in-kind benefits (such as meals). Beaumont will, in turn, report this information to any corporate entity as requested.