

Early Psychosis: Latest Developments in Prevention, Prediction and Treatment

A Masterclass for clinicians and researchers

Monday 8th April, Great Hall (Strand Campus), King's College London

09:30-9:35	Welcome and introduction
09:35-10:00	Early intervention in psychosis: rationale and key concepts Prof. Andrea Mechelli (King's College London)
10:00-10:30	Clinical high risk for psychosis - detection, prognosis, treatment, engagement Dr. Paolo Fusar-Poli (King's College London)
10:30-11:00	First episode psychosis - detection, prognosis, treatment, engagement Prof. Philip McGuire (King's College London)
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-11:45	Latest developments in pharmacological interventions in psychosis Prof. David Taylor (King's College London)
11:45-12:15	Latest developments in psychosocial interventions in psychosis Dr. Emmanuelle Peters (King's College London)
12:15-12:30	Questions and Answers
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:00	Detecting early psychosis in the community Prof. Peter Uhlhaas (University of Glasgow)
14:00-14:30	Impact of the NHS Waiting Time Directive on early intervention in the UK Dr. Tom Spencer (King's College London)
14:30-15:00	Physical Health in Early Psychosis Dr. Fiona Gaughran (King's College London)
15:00-15:15	Coffee Break
15:15-15:45	Substance misuse in early psychosis: implications for detection and treatment Prof. Sir Robin Murray (King's College London)
15:45-16:15	Are the NICE guidelines for early intervention useful? Dr. Sameer Jauhar (King's College London)
16:15-17:00	The future of early intervention Prof. Patrick McGorry (University of Melbourne)
17:00-17:30	Roundtable discussion with questions and answers & final remarks
17:30-18:30	Drinks reception