

“Don’t Panic!”

Practical Aspects of Infection Control

The Workstation, Sheffield
19th & 20th June 2017

Monday 19th June 2017

9.00 - Registration
9.40-10.20	Can we really achieve a reduction in E. coli bacteraemia?	Ms Karen Shaw Public Health England
10.20-11.00	Practical strategies for reducing Gram negative bacteraemia	Dr Mark Melzer Barts Health NHS Trust
Coffee
11.30-12.10	Clostridium difficile : which control measures make a difference?	Prof. Mark Wilcox University of Leeds
12.10-12.50	From zero to hero!	Dr Sara Mumford Maidstone & Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust
Lunch
13.50-14.30	Using Influenza point of care testing to improve patient flow	Dr Cariad Evans Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
14.30-15.10	Category 4 PPE practices: which method is best?	Dr Brian Crook Health & Safety Laboratory
15.10-15.50	Managing the fallout from Pertussis in high-risk populations	Dr Sarah Thompson Sheffield Children’s Hospital

Tuesday 20th June 2017

9.00 - Registration (for Tuesday delegates)
9.40-10.20	What’s the best terminal disinfection after CPE?	Dr Nikunj Mahida Nottingham University Hospitals
10.20-11.00	Understanding the contaminated Intensive Care environment	Dr Stephanie Dancer NHS Lanarkshire
Coffee
11.30-12.10	Update: Mycobacterium chimera in cardiothoracic surgery	Dr Meera Chand Public Health England
12.10-12.50	Managing outbreaks of TB in the workplace	Dr Sophia Makki Health Protection, East Midlands
Lunch
13.45-15.45	What’s happening with Candida auris ? Public Health England National Incident Team
	Overview on the evolving national and international situation Laboratory diagnosis Management of outbreaks – problems and pitfalls Decontamination	