

Pregnancy and Liver Disease: Research Development Meeting

24th April 2017

BMA House, Courtyard Suite, London, WC1

09:30: Registration and coffee

10:00: The unmet need: Why we need more trials and clinical information in pregnancy and liver disease

Dr Rachel Westbrook

10:30 AFLP/HELLP – Getting a trial up and running: What, where, how

Professor Michael Heneghan

11:00 Coffee

11:30 Discussion / workshop: Action points to develop trial

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30: Cirrhosis: the value of population cohort studies to improve practice

Professor Cath Williamson

14:00: UKOSS (UK Obstetric Surveillance System): Success, limitations and how it can be expanded into Europe

Professor Marion Knight

14:45: Discussion / workshop: Action points to develop networks/data collection (cirrhosis)

3:30pm Coffee and close