

Preliminary Program

(Updated on April 08, 2022)

TIME	WEDNESDAY 8 JUNE
06.00-11.30	Exhibition and poster set up
08.00 All day	Registration and coffee in the lobby
	Plenary Session in Congress Hall
10.00-10.45	Opening ceremony
10.45-12.00	Keynotes: Change and Continuity among the Oldest in Society - by Kaare Christensen A century of powerful retired pensioners - continuity OR change? - by Karen Munk
12.00-13.00	Lunch, posters and exhibition
13.00-14.30	Symposia (S) Sessions
	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Symposium (1): Contextual and social determinants of cognitive ageing and dementia (#18)	Symposium (2): Challenges of Using Artificial Intelligence in Supporting Care-dependent People – An International Perspective (#49)	Symposium (3): Social exclusion and loneliness – meanings, risk factors and consequences in four Nordic countries. (#27)	Symposium (4): Prolonged Working Lives between Participation Chances, Inequality and Risks of Exclusion (#47)	Symposium (5): A multidisciplinary approach to capability in age and ageing (#51)	Symposium (6): Future horizons in late life (#48)	Symposium (7): Involving family caregivers in delivering Namaste Care for persons with dementia to improve quality of life: Experiences from three countries(#13)	Symposium (8): The Complex Relationships Between Perceived Housing and Life Transitions: Towards a Better Understanding of Good Aging in Place (#8)	Symposium (9): Cancer gerontology (#32)
14.30-15.00	Coffee break, posters and exhibition
	Oral (O) Sessions
15.00-16.00	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Oral (1) (#12) Changes in Modifiable Health Behaviors During the Pandemic and Effects on Mental Health and Well-being: Evidence From England (#14) The impact of shielding during the COVID-19 pandemic on mental health and well-being: Evidence from the English Longitudinal Study of Ageing (#49) Active ageing: parallel to COVID-19 pandemic: changes from before to amid and after the Emergency Powers Act in Finland (#66) Changes in physical activity from before to amid the first wave of the COVID-19 pandemic among community dwelling older people in Finland (#132) Old Overnight: Experiences of Age-Based Recommendations in Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic in Sweden	Oral (2) (#57) Prescription benzodiazepine and related drug use in Finnish family caregivers: a nationwide register-linkage study (#8) Learning from the experts: A co-operative inquiry approach exploring how to investigate the process of grief in adulthood and old age. (#83) Change during cognitive-behavioral therapy for complicated grief reactions in old age (#159) Music therapy and health musicking as psychological and palliative rehabilitation in dementia (at the mild to moderate stage) (#64) Tools for assessing Prolonged Grief Disorder: Development and validity of the Aarhus PGD-scale for ICD-11 and DSM-5-TR PGD.	Oral (3) (#198) Does Variation in Health change with Age? (#123) Is frailty different in younger and older individuals? Prevalence, characteristics and risk factors of early-onset and late-life frailty (#137) The impact of hip fracture on geriatric care and mortality among older Swedes: Mapping care trajectories and their determinants (#208) Declining daily functioning as a prelude to a hip fracture in older persons – An individual patient data meta-analysis (#209) The basic mobility status beyond being mobilized on postoperative day one is associated with 30-day mortality after hip fracture surgery	Oral (4) (#22) Changing the script: using forum theatre to reimagine the future in older age (#214) Ageism and Stereotypes: A Humanities Perspective in the Medicine Classroom (#215) An existential or clinical phenomenon? 'Frailty' in Danish healthcare journals ca. 2000 to 2021 (#51) "I know his needs better than my own" – informal carers' support needs when caring for a person with dementia (#196) Giving persons with dementia a voice in research about using song and music in everyday life at a nursing home	Oral (5) (#42) Meanings of troublesome (and distressing) behavior of a spouse with memory disorder for the aging couple (#38) Burden and health trajectories of older informal caregivers: findings from a Swedish urban population-based study (#92) Social workers discussions on risks in Swedish elder care during the COVID-19 pandemic (#100) The availability and adequacy of services from a minority language perspective – experiences from Swedish-speaking older adults in Finland (#139) Three caregiver profiles: who are they, what do they do, and who are their co-carers?	Oral (6) (#151) Employment exit type and metabolic syndrome incidence: A longitudinal study among 12,356 older workers from the Lifelines Cohort Study and Biobank (#241) Cohort differences in physical performance according to job demands across three cohorts of older workers in the Longitudinal Aging Study Amsterdam (#219) What's pension got to do with it? Mortality inequality at older ages. (#164) On intentions to leave work in the eldercare sector: Autonomy over working conditions vs. individually negotiated influence (#263) Meaning in life in demented residents in long term care nursing homes	Oral (7) (#36) Care according to age: A case of ageism or a conflict on needs? (#74) Narratives of coping in the early stages of young-onset dementia: is it chaos, disengagement, or active story? (#124) Residential area characteristics moderate the association between political group participation and depressive symptoms among older adults: an 11-year longitudinal investigation (#97) Older people and civic engagement: What micro-, meso- and macro-level variables do have an influence? (#43) Experiences of crime and disorder among older adults living in deprived neighborhoods in Sweden	Oral (8) (#174) The literary old age at the intersection of medical practice and public health - a cross-disciplinary reading of Ane Riel's 'Clockwork'. (#244) Ageing Amid Climate Change: A Literary Gerontological Approach to Fostering Intergenerational Solidarity (#109) Ambivalent Endings in Contemporary Danish End of Life- Novels (#161) Successful ageing in popular culture – does gender matter? (#250) Caregivers of home care clients in Iceland express more feelings of distress, anger, or depression than in five other European countries.	Oral (9) (#16) Wandering the wards: ward 'rules' and the consequences for people living with dementia (#141) Association between cardiometabolic multimorbidity and dementia risk: a nationwide twin study (#89) The DANTON Study - Discontinuation of Antihypertensive Treatment in Older people with dementia living in a Nursing home: results of a randomized controlled trial (#24) Life's Simple 7 and transitions in cognitive status in older adults: a 15-year population-based study (#15) 'Pad cultures' and their consequences: Findings from an ethnographic study examining continence care for people living with dementia during a hospital admission
		Symposia (S) Sessions
16.00-17.30	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Symposium (10): Life course Transitions in Later Life: A Focus on Linked Lives and Linked Transitions (#12)	Symposium (11): Using accelerometers to measure movement and physical activity in aging populations (#40)	Symposium (12): Changing times, same challenges, new possibilities? Perspectives on the role of social relations in the lives of older persons (#46)	Symposium (13): SEE ME: Social inclusion by meaningful ageing (#35)	Symposium (14): "Doing with..." rather than "doing for...": Stimulating active engagement of clients in daily activities (#6)	Symposium (15): Work, lifestyle and health differences in the Nordic countries: Exploring birth cohorts and inequalities (#41)	Symposium (16): Socioeconomic inequalities in ageing and transitions in later life (#21)	Symposium (17): Exploring geographic context and genetic influences on cognitive and physical health outcomes in aging (#31)	Symposium (18): COVID-19 in Europe. Effects on mental health and health-related behaviours. Results from the SHARE-COVID-19 surveys. (#38)
19.00--	Welcome reception Odense City Hall (max 750)

TIME	THURSDAY 9 JUNE
07.30 All day	Registration in lobby
08.00	Morning run
08.45-10.00	Plenary Session in Congress Hall
	Keynotes: Considering and working with older adults as learners: What professional competencies are required? - by Marvin Formosa A Good Enough Life and Death? - by Lone Grøn
10.00-10.30	Coffee break, posters and exhibition
10.30-12.00	Symposia (S) Sessions
	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Symposium (19): Health and retirement (#10)	Symposium (20): Patient perspectives on everyday use of digital health technologies in later life (#33)	Symposium (21): Towards a broader view of loneliness in later life: unravelling its complexity (#26)	Symposium (22): Participatory approaches with older adults (#11)	Symposium (23): Late Adulthood Transition around Age 60: Findings from the Jyväskylä Longitudinal Study of Personality and Social Development (#44)	Symposium (24): Ageing and care in indigenous communities: Photovoice stories from Sápmi and Tayal. (#9)	Symposium (25): "Aging not so successful. Suicide and depression in old age" (#24)	Symposium (26): Lessons Learned from the COVID-19-Pandemic in Long-Term Care - An International Perspective (#36)	Symposium (27): Omics studies of aging (#20)
12.00-13.15	Lunch, poster session and exhibition
12.15-12.55	Lunch symposium by Gold Sponsor InBody - 40 min
13.15-14.45	Symposia (S) Sessions
	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Symposium (28) : To be confirmed	Symposium (29): Ageing, technology and health in later life: Results from the interdisciplinary national graduate school in Sweden, SWEAH (#29)	Symposium (30): The nature-based social prescribing may reduce experiences of loneliness and improve quality of life of older adults (#43)	Symposium (31): Reflections on vulnerability of the older persons (#52)	Symposium (32): Contemporary Gerontological Social Work: changes in practice and theory (#7)	Symposium (33): ARTISTIC PRACTICE AND ETHNOGRAPHY – METHODOLOGICAL CONSIDERATIONS ON RESEARCH IN CARE INSTITUTIONS (#16)	Symposium (34): Change and continuity in quality of life and death in persons with dementia (#28)	Symposium (35): Performative Perspectives on Citizenship in Active Ageing Societies (#17)	Symposium (36): Gene-environment interplay in late-life health and function: Studies from the IGEMS consortium (#45)
14.45-15.00	Coffee break, posters and exhibition
15.00-16.00	Oral (O) Sessions
	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:	Room 8:
	Oral (10) (#87) The positive impact of social support on life satisfaction in older vulnerable people in Germany (#128) Older migrants' experiences of civic engagement in Sweden and Finland (#133) "My children want me to be careful." (#172) Civic engagement among older migrants in Europe: A SHARE-based analysis (#221) Does how adults talk about loneliness vary across age groups? Preliminary analysis of the BBC Loneliness Experiment	Oral (11) (#176) Health-related inequalities in internet access and usage among older adults before and during the COVID-19 pandemic in Germany (#138) The impact of using KOMP as a tool for reducing malnutrition and loneliness for home-living older adults (#247) Older Workers' Experience with Technology-related Changes at Work during the COVID-19 Pandemic (#216) Older adults' societal views about digitalization from perspective of everyday life (#81) Health literacy and health behavior among older adults	Oral (12) (#189) Air pollution exposure across the life course and DNA methylation-based telomere length among older adults in Scotland (#252) Association of long-term exposure to air pollution and dementia risk: the role of homocysteine, methionine (#29) Anticholinergic burden in middle-age is mildly associated with reduced cognitive function, but not with brain volume (#155) The experiences of people with dementia and cognitive impairment in England during the COVID-19 pandemic: Isolation, infection, and access to health services (#152) Relationship between physical frailty, nutritional risk factors and protein intake in self-reliant community-dwelling older adults	Oral (13) (#121) The role of supported housing for older people in addressing loneliness and social isolation: Findings from a UK mixed-methods study (#9) Citizen science - an untapped resource in gerontological research? Senior citizens assessed housing accessibility in the Swedish Housing Experiment 2021 (#238) Demographic Ageing and Housing Demand: Evidence from Residential Turnover in Polish Metropolises (#34) Environmental aspects for active living in older individuals' long-term care (#13) Changes in Grandparenting During the Pandemic and Effects on Mental Health: Evidence From England	Oral (14) (#76) Translation and psychometric evaluation of the Swedish version of the University of Jyväskylä Active Aging Scale (UJACAS) (#23) Mid- and late-life overweight/obesity predict shorter chronic disease-free survival among older adults: A nationwide twin study (#110) Who benefits most of a cognitive behavioural group programme to manage concerns about falling in older adults? (#191) Community-based exercise enhanced by a self-management programme to promote independent living in older adults: a pragmatic randomized controlled trial (#40) Health and mortality by vision and hearing impairments among Danes	Oral (15) (#122) Support of older parents in Europe during COVID-19 – A question of region and gender? (#60) Care coordinators in the Norwegian long-term care context (#96) Development work in Swedish eldercare: Resources for trusted, integrated managerial work of safety and quality for older persons? (#95) Developing eldercare in ageing societies: The misaligned visions and caged change agents (#166) Relationship between perceived health and access to health care for the elderly and future elderly in a region in the interior of Portugal	Oral (16) (#253) Shaping and being shaped: social relationships as sites of responding to late life transitions (#115) The merry widows: lived and gendered experiences of widowhood in the Danish welfare state (#142) The experience of meaning in life in Finnish elderly people (#237) Social isolation and loneliness among Latvian and Swedish older populations. (#37) Inequalities in old age wellbeing in Germany and Poland: The role of social integration, material conditions and regional factors	Oral (17) (#58) Food and nutrition champions are key in foodservices in aged care but how do we effect systems change? (#177) COVID restrictions undermined the well-being and social engagement of long-term care clients – a register-based study (#140) Support Network for End-of-Life Care in Finnish care homes and home care (#184) Covid-19 restrictions and older adults' quality of life in a nursing home - Self-rated health during the Covid-19 pandemic (#218) Nursing-school teachers in clinical practice make staff see themselves as (legitimate) educators	Oral (18) (#63) Cohort specific disability trajectories among older women and men in Europe 2004-2017 (#52) The association between subjective age, chronological age, health and function in a Norwegian Population 60+ (#105) Health trends among older women and men in Sweden, 1992-2021 (#229) Risk factors of post COVID-19 condition attributed to COVID-19 disease in 50+ people in Europe and Israel (#71) Socioeconomic inequalities in self-rated health in very old adults during COVID-19 pandemic
16.00-16.15	Coffee break, posters and exhibition
16.15-17.30	Plenary Session in Congress Hall
	Keynotes: Digital health in the future of geriatric medicine - by Karen Andersen Ranberg Recent developments in falls assessment and management - by Tahir Masud
19.00--	Congress Dinner

TIME	FRIDAY 10 JUNE
07.45 All day	Registration in lobby
08.00	Morning run
08.45-10.15	Symposia (S) & Oral (O) Sessions
	Plenary:	Room 1:	Room 2:	Room 3:	Room 4:	Room 5:	Room 6:	Room 7:
	Symposium (37): The many faces of post retirement work (#5)	Symposium (38): Digital health in support of intersectoral collaboration in geriatric health care (#2)	Symposium (39): Social isolation and loneliness during the COVID-19 pandemic – the Nordic experience (#22)	Symposium (40): An international perspective into involuntary treatment in older adults receiving long-term care: Building blocks for prevention and reduction (#42)	Symposium (41): What are we talking about? Unravelling the concept of reablement. (#15)	Symposium (42): To be confirmed	Symposium (43): Implementation of advance care planning in dementia with nursing home staff and family caregivers during Covid-19 (#37)	Oral (19) (#50) Frailty trends at ages 75, 85, and 95 in persons born 1895-1945: Findings from Swedish registry data (#53) Development and field-testing of the Dementia Carer Assessment of Support Needs Tool (DeCANT) (#65) Measuring the prevalence of chronic conditions in a population aged 90 and over: the agreement between self-reported and health register data (#27) HuBERTien: automatic speech recognition for interview recordings in long-term care (#249) The Influence of Learning on Life Satisfaction at Retirement – Results from a German Panel Study (#73) The Voice of Experience: Exploring Creativity and Old Age through the Ageing Actor Figure
								Symposium (44): The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on older adults: results from the Longitudinal Aging Study Amsterdam (#30)
10.15-10.45	Coffee break and exhibition
10.45-12.00	Plenary Session in Congress Hall
	Keynotes:
	What counts more for older adults: the health or social benefits of physical activity? - by Mark Tully Preconditions for prolonging working life – between policies, civil society and the life course - by Kène Henkens
12.00-13.00	Lunch and exhibition
12.00-13.00	Lunch symposium - 40 min - Invited Sponsored Symposium (To be confirmed)
13.00-13.30	Lecture in Congress Hall
	Lecture: NGF Prize for promising researcher in gerontology
	Lecture: Sohlberg Nordic Prize in Gerontology
14.00-14.30	Closing Ceremony

(This preliminary program is drafted and published on April 08, 2022. NKG reserves the right to change the content)