ANNOUNCEMENT PROGRAM

IMCAS ASIA 2024

Welcome

Returning to Bangkok to Revolutionize Dermatology and Plastic Surgery Education

For another spectacular year, IMCAS Asia 2024 will gather for our 17th edition to explore the leading science and innovation among the region's hub of Bangkok. A center for specialty medicine, we are excited to launch another year to study the cutting-edge clinical and aesthetic treatments with our outstanding physician network and an international faculty of experts.

Our upcoming scientific program covers a broad selection of trends and topics relevant to today's clinical practice, from technical science through the latest industry innovation. We partner with regional and international societies to foster the exchange of accredited resources to provide a program that is knowledge-based, while also fostering a world-renowned exhibition of leading brands to gather the top representatives in the market. In this way, we offer a unique learning experience, that is both accredited and responsive to the latest market trends, while upholding complete scientific transparency.

IMCAS Asia is open for all registrations and bookings! Join us for another transformative event with the brightest minds in dermatology, plastic surgery, and aging science to reshape the future of aesthetic treatments and modern clinical practice. ,
