

American Association of Tissue Banks®

2017 AATB Annual Meeting
October 3-6, 2017
Orlando, FL

Renaissance Orlando at SeaWorld

The 2017 AATB Annual Meeting will provide attendees with education opportunities associated with many of the tissue banking technologies and innovations that continually improve tissue banking processes. Concurrent sessions will offer professionals working in areas related to management, donor screening, tissue recovery, tissue processing and distribution, regulatory, birth tissues and reproductive tissues, many opportunities to share new ideas to further improve their tissue banking operations.

Saturday, October 7th 11:30 a.m. -2:30 p.m. eastern time the Certified Tissue Banking Specialist Examination will be held at the American Association of Tissue Banks Annual Meeting location and around the world.
