

Day 1 | Tuesday 01 July

Time	Barra, Jura & Shuna Suites
09:00	Newly Qualified Pre-Event Workshop Registration
09:30 - 11:30	Newly Qualified Pre-Event Workshop
Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
11:00	Registration
12:00	Lunch
13:00	Welcome - Sally Tilt DFP Chair
13:10	Keynote - Chris Dean Senior fellow at the Global Center of Cooperative Security and Director of Identify Psychological Services Ltd
14:10	Changeover
14:15	Vulnerability factors for radicalisation for autistic individuals referred to Prevent - Implications for support. Rachel Worthington Manchester Metropolitan University Zainab Al-Attar UCL	The Rise of the Phoenix: A substances Misuse Programme Supporting Forensic Inpatient Service Users Carolyn Scott, Katie Foy & Huda Abdullahi Humber NHS Foundation Trust	Ethics as Process in Forensic Psychology: A Dynamic Approach Rebecca Gomm University of Greenwich	Neurodevelopmentally informed practice in Young Adult Courts: The development of a pragmatic screening process for real-time adaptations in Court. Jonathan Derbyshire Health New Zealand

Day 1 | Tuesday 01 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
14:35	An emerging cohort? The interaction between specific psychological characteristics and accessing violent material online within young, non-convicted males experiencing violent fantasies Mark Walton & Jo Dodsworth Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust	Preliminary Findings: A systematic review of substance misuse treatment processes and outcomes implemented in British male prisons Kim Barnett Bangor University	Parole Board Members' Views on Risk Formulation Nic Bowes Cardiff Metropolitan University	Barriers to Effective Care for Young People with ADHD Supported in Residential Care: A Review of Legislation, Healthcare Challenges, and Treatment Adelle Sutherland & Rachel Worthington Manchester Metropolitan University
14:55	Refreshment break
15:15	Using a Short-Term Risk Assessment and Compassion Focused Staff Support Groups to Reduce Restrictive Intervention Use in a Secure Mental Health Service Daniel Lawrence Cardiff Metropolitan University	Stalking in Schools: A Reflexive Thematic Analysis exploring the lived experiences of students and teachers as both perpetrators and victims of stalking behaviours within educational settings. Rachel Worthington Manchester Metropolitan University	Community sentencing with a Mental Health Treatment Requirement (MHTR): an exploration of offenders' engagement, experience, and outcomes Kate Walker Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust	The impact of a Well-being service within a specialist Youth-to-Adulthood (Y2A) probation hub. Ana Dias East London Foundation Trust

Day 1 | Tuesday 01 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
15:35	It's a Man's World, or Is It? The Experiences of Female Governors' and Deputy Governors' working in HMPPS Emily Jones Oxford Health NHS Trust	Insight into Intrusion: Investigating how prior relationship and attachment style influences the perception of stalking. Leusa Forsyth Goldsmiths, University of London	Adopting the Power Threat Meaning Framework within a Forensic Outreach Liaison Service: A Qualitative Exploration. Courtney Smith Newcastle University,	Factors Influencing Bystander Action and Inaction in Cases of Multiple Perpetrator Rape: A Qualitative Investigation. Ioana Crivatu Bournemouth University
15:55	Changover
16:00	Symposium: Beyond the Screen: Safeguarding the Minds Behind Digital Forensic Investigations Chair - Paul Griffiths Complex Trauma Institute Paper 1 - The Digital Forensic Investigator – Does Personal Resilience Matter? Carol Brooks Paper 2 - Seeing the Unseen: Mental Health Challenges in Digital Forensics and How We can Adapt their CPD to protect it! Professor Sarah Morris Paper 3 - Digital Forensic Investigation and Mental Health: A Personal Case	Symposium: Introducing Project MOSAIC: Multidisciplinary approaches to Stopping Abuse and Intimate partner Conflict, a new initiative from Nottingham Trent University. Chair - Erica Bowen Nottingham Trent University Paper 1 - Searching for a needle in a haystack: Adequate measurement of controlling behaviours. Fiona Lerigo London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine	Symposium: Working effectively within the Community Offender Personality Disorder Pathway Chair - Hayley Sharp Nottingham Trent University Paper 1 - Transitions from Prison: Understanding the Impact of Psychological Consultation on relational work at Probation Approved Premises (APs). Hayley Sharp Nottingham Trent University	Symposium: Working in Forensic Mental Health: Tools, Challenges and Reflections for Staff and by Staff in a Low Secure Hospital in Scotland Chair - Liz Gilchrist University of Edinburgh Discussant - Michele Gilluley Priory Group

Day 1 | Tuesday 01 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
16:00 - 17:20	Symposium continued	Symposium continued: Paper 2 - Is a history of domestic violence associated with specific causes of death and mortality risk profiles among people supervised by probation in England and Wales between 2019-2021? Erica Bowen Nottingham Trent University Paper 3 - Non-Criminal Justice professionals experience of providing trauma informed care to those who are violent or abusive in intimate relationships Hannah Bolton Nottingham Trent University	Symposium continued: Paper 2 - Practitioner's perceptions and experiences of a Brief Joint Case Work (JCW) Intervention within the Offender Personality Disorder (OPD) Community Pathway Ashley Porter & Rosie Cornwell NHS, Norfolk and Suffolk Paper 3 - Experiences of staff and people on probation within Intensive Intervention and Risk Management Services. Kelly Watkins Nottingham Trent University	Symposium continued: Paper 1 - Investigation of the experiences of clinical team members using the Dynamic Appraisal of Situational Aggression Inpatient Version (DASA-IV) in a mixed gender low-secure environment Paper 2 - Role Conflict and Role Ambiguity in Staff working in Forensic Mental Health Settings Paper 3 - Benefits and barriers to Implementation of Reflective Practice in Forensic Mental Health settings
17:30	Drinks reception & Poster Presentations
18:30	Conference Close

Day 2 | Wednesday 02 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
08:30	Registration
09:00	Welcome - Sally Tilt DFP Chair
09:10	Changeover
09:15	An exploration of how prisoners experience the recall process within a category B prison. Becky Johnson serco	Understanding Social Exclusion and Vulnerability to Radicalisation through the Prism of the Power Threat Meaning Framework. Alice Bennett HMP Frankland Ieva Cechaviute Royal Holloway University of London	Significant Characteristics of a Cohort of Adolescents Displaying Harmful Sexual Behaviour: Distinctive Factors of Those with Contact and Non-Contact Sexual Offending Sam Conway Abertay University Stephen Evens NHS Greater Glasgow	Pornography use, attitudes towards sexual coercion, and perpetration of sexually coercive behaviours (SCB) by females Lauren Teasal University of Nottingham
09:35	What are Mainstream Prisoners' Attitudes Towards Protection Prisoners? Amy Tran Scottish Prison Service	Cognitive Rigidity and Conspiracy Mentality: A Predictive Model Christie Tetreault University of Saskatchewan & University of Galway	Operationalising Childhood Adversity to Predict Delinquency: Comparing Single Adversity, Cumulative Risk, and Latent Class Approaches Yuhui Liu Department of Clinical Psychology, School of Health in Social Science, University of Edinburgh	What are the challenges staff members perceive and experience when working with women presenting to the criminal justice system?: A Rapid Evidence Assessment. Joe Swift Tees Esk and Wear Valley NHS Foundation Trust

Day 2 | Wednesday 02 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre 60 Cabaret	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre 35 Cabaret	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre 35 Cabaret
09:55	How prisoners view psychologists – from the pages of Inside Time, the prisoners' newspaper Ben Leapman Inside Time	Autism Spectrum Disorder and Incel Communities: How do online communities exhibit dual responses to individuals identifying with or experiencing autism and Incel ideologies? Rachel Worthington Manchester Metropolitan University	A (near) 40-Year Journey of Establishing an Evidence-Based Model for High-Risk Children Displaying Antisocial Behavior – the SNAP Model Areti Smaragdi Child Development Institute	Exploring Resilience in Women Who Have Offended Rebecca Gomm University of Greenwich
10:15	Refreshment break
10:40	Keynote - Professor Gavin Oxburgh The Northern Hub for Veterans and Military Families Research
11:40	Lunch
12:40	The experience of black service users accessing a residential Offender Personality Disorder treatment service in a Category C prison. Rachel Stain Northampton Healthcare Foundation Trust	Emotion, identity, and rehabilitation: Towards an enactivist practice framework Harry Dent Swinburne University of Technology	"I think I just realised that I really squandered a really valuable opportunity": A qualitative analysis of the motivations behind therapy drop-out for high-risk offenders in a prison intervention service within the offender personality disorder pathway Ellie Archdeacon University of Nottingham	Why do prisoners desist from dual harming behaviours in prison? Themes from prisoner accounts. Sarah Motson, Jolene Taylor & Louise Carter HMPPS

Day 2 | Wednesday 02 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
13:00	Changeover
13:05	Symposium: The (new) Scottish Enlightenment: Forensic Practice in Scotland. Adam Mahoney Chair of DFP Scotland	Workshop: So, What's Next? Getting Your Research Noticed outside of Academia Christie Tetreault University of Saskatchewan	Symposium: The Directorate of Security Applied Research Chair - Rachel O'Rourke HMPPS Paper 1 - 'Just another typical Young Offender': A qualitative study into the perceptions of procedural fairness in relation to ethnicity within Young Adult prisoners. Nicole Burke HMPPS	Symposium: Importance of Inclusive Practice in Forensic Psychology Contexts Chair - Martine Ratcliffe HMPPS Discussant - Caroline Falgate HMPPS Paper 1 - Diversity and Inclusion – Consideration of Governance and Next Steps in HMPPS Psychology Services Martine Ratcliffe HMPPS
14:05		Working in a prison mental health team for foreign nationals – HMP Maidstone Laura Blu, Claire Colquhoun-Flannery, Katherine Ahluwalia & Anna Stausberg Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust	Paper 2 - What works? A thematic analysis of young adult offenders' views and experience of a Long-Term High Security prison in a post-COVID world, utilising the Criminal Narrative Framework. Bethany Anthony HMPPS Paper 3 - What are the Links between Autism and Terrorism Pathways in Autistic Individuals Convicted of Terrorism Offences? An International Expert Consensus Zainab Al-Attar HMPPS	Paper 2 - Inclusive and responsive good practice in supporting individuals with neurodiversity needs Karen Thorne HMPPS

Day 2 | Wednesday 02 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
14:25	Symposium continued: Symposium - DFP Scotland Adam Mahoney Chair of DFP Scotland	Exploring the experiences of neurodiverse staff working in a prison setting. Adam Fedorniak Serco	Symposium continued: Paper 4 - An Evaluation of the Treatment Programmes Conducted on The Westgate Unit. Chloe May HMPPS Paper 5 - Gang membership and rehabilitation: an exploration of narrative accounts from violent gang offenders in an English prison. Sarah Tonks HMPPS	Symposium continued: Paper 3 - Acknowledging and addressing diversity and inclusivity in the Revised Forensic Context Testing Standards Lorraine Hough HMPPS Paper 4 - Inclusive practice to support Community Transition Karen Thorne HMPPS
14:45		Can access to culture reduce criminal justice involvement and improve reintegration? Christie Tetreault University of Saskatchewan		An exploration of psychologists and prisoners' experience of using virtual technology for the purpose of engaging in psychological risk assessment interviews. Rachael Cresswell Scottish Prison Service
15:05	Refreshment break
15:25	Keynote 3 - Developing an AI-enabled decision-support tool for crime linkage with sexual offences - Jessica Woodhams University of Birmingham
16:25	Conference Close
19:00	Evening Event - Dockyard Social

Day 3 | Thursday 03 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre
09:00	Registration
09:30	Welcome - Sally Tilt DFP Chair
09:40	Changeover
09:45	To be confirmed	Workshop: A workshop on whether mental health teams in custody are providing fair and equitable access to patients, based on their gender and ethnicity. Niamh Allen & Laura McCraw Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	Workshop: Constructing coercion and control: A workshop exploring professionals' perceptions of coercive controlling behaviours in relationships Jenny Mackay & Erica Bowen Nottingham Trent University Fiona Lerigo London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine	Workshop: Identification and application of risk and protective factors in children with antisocial behaviour Areti Smaragdi Child Development Institute Thea Austevik University of Stavanger
10:05	Application of the 'Transforming Psychological Trauma: Quality Improvement Tool' in the Fife Women's Justice Team; process, good practice examples and future directions. Kate Campbell & Seonaid Peddie NHS Fife

Day 3 | Thursday 03 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre 60 Cabaret	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre - 35 Cabaret	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre - 35 Cabaret
10:25	A Multiple Case Study Approach to Evaluate Treatment Outcomes of a Prison-Based Female Offender Personality Disorder Service. Elaine Platten & Alison Hodgson Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	Workshop continued	Workshop continued	Workshop continued
10:45	Refreshment break
11:05	Symposium: Rehabilitative directions for technology use in prisons. Chair - Sally Tilt HMPPS Psychology Services Group Paper 1 - Why do Prisoners Text When They can Call? Emily Staley HMPPS Paper 2 - A Pathway to Rehabilitation: Predicting Psychological Change Through Prison-based Personal Computer Use Sally Tilt HMPPS Psychology Services Group	Invited Workshop - Humanising Rehabilitation at scale Cara Cunningham & Sarah Kitching HMPPS	Symposium: Contemporary Discussions in Open Prison Conditions Chair - Gary Goodley HMPPS Midlands PSG Paper 1 - Prisoner experiences of transition from closed prison to open 'D' category prisons Jenni Powell HMPPS Southeast and East PSG Paper 2 - Why do People Abscond from Open Prison? Meg Harrington-Fletcher HMPPS Southeast and East PSG	Symposium: Trauma Informed interventions in secure forensic settings Chair - Geraldine Akerman Oxford Health NHS Trust Paper 1 - Trauma and Recovery and working with traumatised teams Geraldine Akerman Oxford Health NHS Trust Paper 2 - A trauma informed approach to working with mothers who have killed their children: a longitudinal case study. Adam Mahony Napier University

Day 3 | Thursday 03 July

Time	Argyll Suite 1 & 2 (Main Plenary) 450 Theatre	Castle Suite 1 (Breakout 1) 90 Theatre 60 Cabaret	Castle Suite 2 (Breakout 2) 75 Theatre - 35 Cabaret	Castle Suite 3 (Breakout 3) 75 Theatre - 35 Cabaret
	Symposium continued:	Workshop continued	Symposium continued:	Symposium continued:
12:05	Paper 3 - The Exploration of Imprisonment for Public Protection (IPP) Prisoners' Experiences of using In-Cell Technology at a Category C prison, using Multi-Perspective Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis. Charlotte Le Bourgeois HMPPS Paper 4 - User-centric design in custody: reflections from the Launchpad laptop service Jason Morris HMPPS	Characteristics of offenders who engage versus drop-out from long-term psychological interventions in high secure prison settings Ellie Archdeacon University of Nottingham	Paper 3 - Integrated Model of Abscond: An integrated understanding of why prisoners abscond from open prisons Tom Bonser HMPPS Southeast and East PSG Attitudes Towards Non-Violent Criminal Record Holders: The Role of Sociodemographic Factors, Openness, and Experience. Abbie Somers Maynooth University	Paper 3 - Trauma Treatment in Secure Settings Dan Johnson Kibble Paper 4 - Understanding and managing harmful sexual interests: Sexuality trauma, loss of intimacy and acceptance of solitude. Jon Taylor Derbyshire Health Foundation Trust
12:25		The Dual Harm Dilemma: Sharing Pain and Violence - A Rapid Evidence Assessment of Risk Factors, and Management Strategies Lloyd Tarrant Serco
12:45	Keynote 4 - Managing Institutional Violence through Structured Professional Judgement: The PRISM process - David Cooke Australian Catholic University
13:45	Conference Close

Day 1 | 01 July: Poster Presentations

Number	Name & Affiliation	Title
1	Agustín Romano Instituto Técnico Forense	A Case of Serial Transvesticides/Transfemicides in Uruguay: Criminal and Victimological Profiling
2	Carolina Campodonico UCLan	Developing Evidence-Based Psychosis Training for Police: The UPSKILL Programme
3	Christopher Rosenbrier, Emmie Crawford, Alex Housley Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	Children who sexually offend against animals (CSOAA): A mixed-methods service evaluation of cases referred into a Forensic Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (FCAMHS).
4	Christopher Rosenbrier, Emmie Crawford, Alex Housley Affiliation/Institution	Stalking and harassment behaviour amongst young people: A mixed-methods service evaluation of cases referred into a Forensic Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (FCAMHS).
5	Ella Gannon Priory Healthcare	Exploring the use of safeguarding procedures in the management of patient to patient bullying in a forensic low secure hospital
6	Emily Smyth TEWW NHS Foundation Trust	Compassion & Psychosis: Evaluation of a Compassion Focused Group Intervention into secure inpatient services.
7	Faisal Satti City, St George's University of London	Evaluating the Impact of Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT) for Adolescents with Personality Disorder: A Case Study from a North London CAMHS Service.
8	Geoff Taylor Risk Management Authority	The prevalence of psychopathy in individuals sentenced to an Order for Lifelong Restriction (OLR).

Day 1 | 01 July: Poster Presentations

Number	Name & Affiliation	Title
9	Geraldine Akerman NHS Jenny Tew HMPPS	A beginners guide to publishing
10	Joelene Francis London Psychology Services, HMPPS	Reframing the narrative: HMPPS operational staff's understanding of issues related to diversity, race, and culture within a Category C prison setting.
11	Karen Johnson & Caroline Falgate HMPPS	The Significance of Desistance Self-Narratives Scripts Through the Gate
12	Kim Barnett Bangor University	Preliminary Findings: A systematic review of substance misuse treatment processes and outcomes implemented in British male prisons
13	Laila Robertson & Samantha Lowe Scottish Prison Service	Evaluation of Females in Custody's Experiences of the Ultimate Self Offending Behaviour Programme: A Trauma Informed Intervention
14	Lauren Cusworth Serco	Prison stability: A mixed methods study examining the impact of 'Out of Area' placements on the dynamic of a prison environment.
15	Lydia Cook University of Nottingham	The Impact of Perpetrator and Victim Gender Identity and Ambivalent Sexism on Perceptions of Relational Stalking.
16	Nadya Nabi Glasgow Caledonian University	Evaluating the Efficacy of Canine-Assisted Interventions in Enhancing Mental Health Outcomes Among Incarcerated Populations
17	Nia Helyar Cardiff Metropolitan University	A review of the evidence surrounding strategies to adapt staff attitudes towards individuals with personality disorder within forensic services. A Rapid Evidence Assessment.

Day 1 | 01 July: Poster Presentations

Number	Name & Affiliation	Title
18	Niamh Kennedy & Jonna Barry Norfolk and Suffolk Foundation Trust	Adapted Schema Therapy in a Forensic Hospital- Case Study of Adult Male Patient with Neurodivergent Traits.
19	Rachel Earnshaw Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	Professional Quality of Life in Staff Working with Complex Personality Difficulties: Learning from Four Years of Data Collection
20	Rebecca Brisbane Surehaven Hospital	Feasibility and outcomes of implementing a Reflective Practice Framework in a low secure forensic setting
21	Samantha Munoz The State Hospital	Registered Practitioners' Perspectives on Trauma-Informed Care within a High Secure Hospital, Scotland – A Qualitative Study
22	Sana Rehman Queen Mary University London	How does Economic Abuse contribute to Domestic Homicide cases?
23	Sarah Hicks, Warren Dennis, Jasmine Lawes, Caitlin Cossey, Amy Brayley CPFT	The Fens OPDP Service Identity and Integration Group (IIG): a qualitative analysis identifying a need, through development of the group, to a pilot evaluation of this treatment group in a trauma-focused treatment service for offenders with personality disorder in high security prison
24	Scott Thacker Serco	"It's always there in the back of your mind": Exploring the experiences of prisoners with sexual convictions in an offence neutral environment using Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis
25	Yasmin McGorlick Tees, Esk & Wear Valley NHS Foundation Trust	Co-developing an outcome measure to assess DBT skill acquisition in forensic service users with intellectual disabilities: The DBT Skills Acquisition Scale - Intellectual Disabilities (DSAS-ID)
26	Zainab Al-Attar UCL Rachel Worthington Manchester Metropolitan University	The Moral Paradox of Terrorism Pathways Driven by Moral Injury: Implications for Understanding and Addressing Risk.

Day 1 | 01 July: Work in Progress Poster Presentations

Number	Name & Affiliation	Title
1	Beth Harrison & Bethany Day Cygnet Health Care	Establishing a New Service on Relational Practice Principles and Enabling Environment Values: A Service Evaluation
2	Kate Walker Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust	Offenders' experiences and outcomes following a Mental Health Treatment Requirement (MHTR)
3	Craig Harper Nottingham Trent University	What does the evidence say about sex doll ownership and risk?
4	Ema Baukaite NHFT	From Awareness to Action: Developing a Domestic Abuse Identification and Response Framework for use in Mental Health Services
5	Gemma Yates Serco	'It's like birds of a feather flock together': experiences of gang affiliation within an adult male prison.
6	Jenny Baker Midlands Psychology Services - HMPPS	Young Adult Group Members' Perspectives on Factors which Influence Engagement whilst Participating on an Offending Behaviour Programme in Custody.
7	Rachel Leese Buckinghamshire New University	A qualitative study into the experiences of victims of sexual violence undertaking the My Voice victim only Restorative Justice programme
8	Kerrie Smith HMP Low Newton	Prevalence for Mental Health Support for Eating Disorders at HMP Low Newton
9	Kristy Horton University of Bedfordshire	A qualitative examination of the multi-disciplinary team decision-making process behind Section 17 leave within a secure forensic mental health hospital.
10	Lauren Murphy London South Bank University	Incorporating the Good Lives Model as a new framework for substance misuse intervention

Day 1 | 01 July: Work in Progress Poster Presentations

Number	Name & Affiliation	Title
11	Lauren Watson Tees Esk and Wear Valley NHS Trust	Staff experience of reflective practice sessions within Tees Esk and Wear Valley NHS trust Health & Justice departments.
12	Leanne Taylor Manchester Metropolitan University	Justice-Involved Young People who Reside in Secure Children's Homes: Staff Experiences of The Impact of Trauma on Relationships
13	Lilybeth Ihezue Buckinghamshire New University	Understanding Autism: Examining the Importance of Mandatory Autism-Specific Training for Police from the Perspective of Former Officers
14	Neeti Iyer Greater Manchester Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust	Exploring the relationship between early maladaptive schemas (EMSs) and burnout in forensic mental health nursing and support staff
15	Rachel Earnshaw & Joe Swift Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	A descriptive study exploring the presence and relevance of violence risk items from the FAM violence risk assessment for women residing in a secure service and OPD treatment service.
16	Rebecca Gibbs & Beth Harrison Cygnet Health Care	A Service Evaluation Exploring Staff Barriers for Raising Safeguarding Concerns in a High Support Inpatient Rehabilitation Learning Disability Service: A Thematic Analysis
17	Rebecca Lievesley Nottingham Trent University	Member experiences of the MAP Support Club
18	Samantha Riley NHS, Durham	Reflections from a therapist and a patient on the benefits and complexities of delivering EMDR in a high secure prison.
19	Sophie Whittingham HMP Dovegate, Serco	What factors linked to early days in custody impact self-harm: A Rapid Evidence Assessment.